[1815. Correspondence Queen Charlotte and her brother published re Duke of Cumberland's marriage]

Nov. 21

Watermark ? 1804

Dear Madam

Windsor

Any doubt your address in the first place I have to thank you for the very first name you ever send yet & which has lasted as far as I know & has not been altered by any body I think your address is not like in refusing to see the correspondence and that only your name every thing gets into the news papers & I think your you will be a judge that the D's letter to her brother was certainly only intended for her own private ears & eyes what was approved then had not in the newspapers (which was arranged & used the D only for any body else does not know the L. money suppose that she had a letter in some one about her / in that statement that justifies & explains her conduct - I am the first to think that I do not see such unless always to her - but an error when you see it - and that I is quite sure the what it is. It is plain the L's dequity to have camp stump to be with the best papers I have been suffering awfully since I was cut with them on my face & substituted to have a tooth drawn just last night I hope will take off the tooth I was suffered but I was quite shock with it as I have had no sleep for some nights
