My dear Mr Adams
 I was quite glad to see by the Papers that your Mrs Daines is dead as I know how much it will affect you all. I remember your telling me when she was in the way in her health but I had her dead she was in some danger - many thanks for your last kind letter & for the one you enclosed which arrived as usual

little Williams letter is now better than any one I ever had before I fully intend answering it - The King thanks God is growing ever so well so profitable such a change for the better,
 in this last week
 it is quite wonderful He walked yesterday with 4 of my Brothers on the Terrace & now all this better for it and played at Backgammon of our evening visits amuse me from home

 the improve in looks as well as health & we really are admiring in all respects — Sophia is better but not well I can thank God quite recovered & walked nearly to day more to day —
 I hope poor Colman is better & not in so suffering a state as he was

Yours, your hand and
