March the 2^d

My dear Mr Adams — one line to my Mother I expect to be quite uneasy at not hearing from
 you. I hope Mr Adams is not more in your way in any of your family Mr. Gully is not with us here she returned to I saw yesterday my brother at hearing her so long with us therefore if you don't send your letters by the Post to her (at once / which I like much I hope I may venture this but need there to say the Rivers is young to Property - Stone had on well but up and a letter from Acquinta shows an must sumption full of expect a sad this some at poor Mr Sand's damp matter less death & she is much give her a lot afraid of the effort injury ed in his it may be in such which is my your sister's paper working - System who is doubtfully does not get her work with all she strength hardly has give through the rest of us are all the last year & last will & hope to enjoy the greatest regard I require any much possible for our world this time of year every thing begins

So lovely beautiful God bless you my dearest John Adams & when we must say yours
Mary
