

ap 28 1840

My dear Mr. Adams -
 Many many thanks for the dear letter I received yesterday & looking for one received some days ago which I had returned but not have returned before I
 thank God Mr. Adams
 is better & I pray God
 he may soon be quite
 restored to you -
 I'm happy it would have made me
 could you have reached yesterday at Providence I should have seen you

thing that could have your name
 as a member pleasure & agree on every
 account that you
 could not but wish
 a pleasure into caution & still more when
 I reflect that your
 columns's health
 is the cause of
 your absence —

Pray do you think
 of coming up to London or do you
 talk of having been

at all for change of
 air — & whether it is always a benefit but I never was so convinced
more in the country
 as yesterday & the
 next day of all
 that has passed there
 last year brought
 such many kind
pleasant things
 to my mind —
 All my Brothers
 were down & sent
 me beautiful presents
 as well as the L & my Sister — the
 day the day end

forgot the day which
 was my gratifying
 to my feelings
 In one fortnight
 the King appeared to be weary as if
 both as to health
 as well as business
 that we began to
 suppose he might
 be well convinced
 there we returned
 to flatter ourselves
 some tenure ago
 the fact is he had
 got much worse -
 - remained ever being
 before the Playans

& struggles that his
 soul really could be a private lover for
 the always some got
concern but disturbance & servants - I see
 consequence it was necessary to make
 some total to me
 what effort it might have in business
 therefore they returned him his keys -
 which has brought
 on a great deal
 of constituted &
business therefore
 I can not say more

