

July 19. 1811

I am not at your house
 letter received unopened My dear Mr Adams — but I should very much like to see you as nothing can be more than the appearance of your stay at this place
 This is the 17 day of the present month
 which time the day and evening
 very quiet & settled
 without one moment
 interruption & has been completely lost
 but however useful

July 19, 1811

in general any marks of madness after five weeks perfect quiet
 this without excitement to cure in mind of course you can never hold hopes long
 of his recovery &
 yet his strength
 does not appear
 inclined to give way yet. — I am truly grieved at the account of Mr Adams
 but agree William & his family are

young to pass your
 as it will be a great comfort — God bless you & yours
 I am
 truly
 your friend
