

Aug 30. 1811

My dear Mr Adams —

I have said nothing here to say or should have <sup>written</sup> ~~written~~ sooner. All goes on the same my report at present & my interest at other points yesterday & today have been bad days — unstable & hurried the mind continues in the same lost & confused state with the loss of appearance of gaining any ground We hoped he had gained some ground as to holdy health, some days ago so he stayed for three or 4 days tolerably & he was recovered, but lost weight & the night before there have had heights Every day we had a view of the sea & contented with very little - the rest of the all well, but will occasionally at the point is speaking - John

Squire & Steuart have advised us to go to coffee a table except that <sup>the</sup> ~~the~~