Sir

We are extremely sorry any mistake should have occurred in your account. On looking over our London Warehouse Book, we find on the 10th February 1810 that fourteen Pounds 18/- had been received from you, by R. Bailow. The mistake as originated, by our Bookkeeper in our warehouse here (which is separate from the Shop) not giving in the name when he looked over the Book. We must beg leave to apologise for the error which was very unknowingly committed. For your satisfaction have stated the particulars of the articles paid for on the 16th May 1809, and those in Sept<sup>r</sup> 1809 were sent to Gidling and the 27th 26 Oct<sup>r</sup> were sent to Bradby Hall. The particulars of these we hope you received from you, by L. Barlow. The mis-We beg leave to send the annexed account, and shall consider ourselves much obliged by the favour of it being paid to Mess<sup>rs</sup> Smith & Cragg N<sup>o</sup> 128 Cheap Side London, who will at any time wait upon you, if you wish it. The favour of any commands will be thankfully received by and for
