

Sir
London Oct 28th 1729
1/2 past two P.M.

I have ^{just} had the honor of receiving your Royal Highness's letter of one P.M.

I assure your Royal Highness that I have nothing to talk to your Royal Highness upon, ^{respecting} what I have written it is stated to the whole World.

I have no business to transact concerning His Majesty; and I do not care who knows what I say or do in the transact of that business.

I am now going out; but shall be at home

in Off than an hour. I must attend the Cabinet at a quarter before four.
 I have the honor to be in with the greatest respect Your Royal Highness' most Obedient humble servant
 W. Channing

Handwritten notes on the left margin:
The
er.
tent
A
X
2

