My dear Mr South I could wish my letters were interesting but you know we have but little to talk of. I am always happy to inform you of as I am certain to be in more business than you are concerning the My all I can make out I should suppose there to be a life good day there yesterday. As the night was rainy, lightning, & talking beyond sleep to

 not long off and had much excitement to the children & I think say the conversation was very trifling with them & not without solemnity.

 since the new system
 without our confidence Dundas told me he was no dependence on the R
 but that all that island says is over. Dundas had an opportunity of speaking and I perfectly to the depth in the matter of John Bull's & I should hope all Bull's would make a deep confession
 and not look better fairly and it would be more time before he could venture to give an opinion on the R's state, but he has this September being over B.A.'s account is that this has not been a good day as yet
 by many degrees

& he did not take the R which he would to be through he was on good terms. I believe the day was made as good
