My dear Madam,

You do me indeed justice when you say that I shall accept your letter, & its contents, I do, & with pleasure, since it proves that Mr. M. has not met for some time, that you not quite say so. I frequently have I heard of you, & I was happy to learn that you were the whole you enjoyed better health than usual, I trust it may continue so, & that is the greatest of all blessings, & without it we have no enjoyment of any thing.

Should you for your kind wishes, & expressions, I will but retain your copies them to

Yours ever

My dear Madam

I am

Your very sincere

Friend
