

14th Jan'y
Coanbum Lodge.

My Dear Madam -

I have not long received your very obliging letter, but by some mistake or the distance I did not let it come I ought. I only knew this circumstance to account for a length of silence that would not otherwise have been the case.

I am very sensible of the attention of the printer that has taken this of the name of the Annual Letter to me, & it gives me pleasure to see of the title, ~~that~~ (the name here used and for so many years) that I could not have been your memory, & have not had my name in hand in your hand.
For the name of pleasure, I believe is that I have been still exist, have made. I must in short, & am perfectly satisfied. - I beg this of your
