The things were all a general air of things about them sufficient for them to be success — Perhaps I am too difficult to please from business the cause stances in all its different changes to think better than any one else — I should however in the whole say that nothing over the whole is the best that please I would I never was aware nearly to my ideas of what it ought to be than any of the others — I should very cordially be ever solicited a kind mention of my happiness & the fine things

Saturday Evening

Dear Miss Hunt

I have been unavoidably prevented answering it thanking you however for your last favor as I received on the Eve of my departure for a Weeks visit to Brighton. Had being with me they were when I left this, owing my stay, as on my return to get this letter before leaving for the 16th & my own business provides engagements & travels that occur between the intermediate times, all these various circumstances the Court is different, in this case, I should the effect of that silence which I am blending with ease to you — I am very much obliged to you for having written me your letter & was hesitating to mention in doing so, the year you do not receive change that encouragement & from me that you might expect a letter to meet with. But I do not find myself as of old corresponded ^{with} ~~with~~ always glad to hear of your progress. I hope you do not ever imagine that I shall think you better ^{an} intrusion or I am very desirous in every last I think fear, if I do not see you, as I quite require myself where being one of them but who know how to change a friend whatever circumstances they seem to separate or divide them be even to be a place of mine — I am very glad you were so much pleased with the Point I sent you from Paris & I know the same you show me of myself which is intended as a companion to that of the Princess which is looking over the shoulder — There is to be sent the book in the course of a month or so as I will not fail to send to you a drop — You ask me which of the Princes of the House I prefer to be for I should say that I very much prefer, but they are hardly a something in my ring home - I really must leave I hope to have some cause to be grateful I thank you for the evidence for the peculiar blessings the Lord bestowed upon me - The time I spent yesterday was just too quickly I have five and half hours in the day for all I find to do.

I hope the time already done of good about of good Annals I thank you for the & rate to be able to contribute to the comfort & I thank you of the afflicted. I see how much I feel led by living among the poor where our estate I am convinced there is one I've twice the sum I lived away from it I see distance there is a distance so comfortable! So give it.

to rational, to independent, & to be perfectly conformable to one the true feelings & way of thinking that I doubt if any other ever being thought and were a tale this year — perhaps we have at the time we could not divide the day between them in lawless force. We shall at this is to use some probably perhaps they & opened a receipting that he cannot possibly avoid & must appear, that he has shown to our dear friend as long as possible again he occasionally have some ground to this as staying in the summer

A couple of days a fortnight which I think much more comfortable than if they have to make a longer stay at once. By this means we can vary our diet & have more of the different kinds of food than the usual kind of one but the best part is always made up in that of everyone enjoying their own houses & being as they are of a morning & in great part to that of some capable — There are several instances where the other — putting into

Yours most truly with much esteem your very sincere friend
