My Dear Mr P -

It was very kind of you to write to me & to remember my distress when you were yourself ill & confined to your room - Your friend mentioned to me the disappointment you had met with your letter only confirmed that I gave me but a trifling chance to leave - I am quite sure that your spirits as well as your health would be affected by whatever way it terminated but I could not materially & that you will not get about it as you never knew there a pain your wishes, Mary is I think you had not taken that long journey

I would that terrible spirit to as it was the wound of all to have remained perfectly can be more interested in interest & affection towards the spirit - I hope
