

(43)

Je vier d'Amely qui gai & vive plus forte, meilleur de visage, mais mal à la tête, et une peu de la paine en avaler, elle se plain que la kinkina luy presse sur lestomagne, et quelle a une grand desgor pour le prendre elle a tout les jour des benefice de la Nature, sans estre un des vomitmens, et sans fièvre qui me parait, au main elle sont plus tost fraiche qu'à autre chose, Desjé me dit quelle avait une peu, le pou, Emu, Je vous prie ma chere Klethon de parler a votre amie, et de luy demander, si elle doit continue le kinkina, Je suis fort de se santimens, mais Je me remette entirement a luy, et suivra ces conseille, si salutere pour mes dents enfeans, Je vous prie de mecrire avans que d'aller a kinsinthon

Caroline

at 9 a clock in the evening

I come from Amely, whom I found more strong & with better looks but ill in her head & with a little pain in swallowing. She complains that the kinkina mels her sick at the stomach & that she has a great aversion to taking it.
 She has every day the benefit of nature
 without any vomiting.
 She is without any feavour as appears to me. her hands are rather cold than otherwise. Jessier tells me, her pulse are a little quick. I beg you my dear Clayton to speak to your friend & ask him whether she ought to continue the kinkina. I am very much of that opinion. but I refer my self entirely to him, & will follow his advice soe beneficial to my two children, pray write to me before I goe to Leasington

Caroline