

(67)

J'ai trouvé Amélie parfaitement bien ce matin, J'ai grande beau-coup de ce que l'on ne las saigne, D^r Stegerthal a pris la parole pour dire, que ceste luy qui avait represente au Roy, que ces saigne la foiblissait, J'ai cru contre mon naturelle, luy arrai-cher, les yeux, il a propose ces medecine au Roy, que Je vous envoie, avec le nom, ce que il dit man donne mauvaise opinion, cest quelle fait vomir, suer, ou selon quil est necessaire, mais quil vent lordonner, de maniere, que cela ne fasse que suer, Je vous pris de manvoiger, avant 12 heur, demain la reponse de votre amie, si Je ne puis faire ce quil luy ferait de bien, assurement, elle ne prendra, pas ce qui luy fait du mal, J'ai oublie de vous dire que ces Rougeur des Rissebelle parait aujourd'hui sur ces yeux, vous ne croirez quelle angoisse Je suis, Je connais votre bon coeur, et amitie pour moy.

I found Amely perfectly well this morning. I am greatly pleas'd She was not blouded. D^r Stegerthal took occasion to say, that it was he who represent'd to the King, that the bleeding would weaken her. I believ'd could, contrary to my temper, have pull'd out his eye. He propos'd the medicine to the King which I send you with the name. What He said gives me an ill opinion of it. it is what causes to vomit sweat, or purge, as there is occasion, but that He would order it in such a manner, that it should only cause sweat. pray send me your friends answer before 11 in the morning. if I cannot doe that which will doe her good, be assur'd She shall not take that which will doe her harm.
 I am oblig'd to tell you that the redness of the Erysipilis appears to day above her eye. you cannot believe what anguish I am in know your good heart & friendship for me
 Caroline