(Re. George's life-span)

? early 1718, when Caroline had been forced to leave her children, & a bill has introduced giving the King control over the Prince's income.

This is by order of the Prince to desire you would write to me tomorrow morning concerning the 20000<sup>a</sup> pounds how & upon
 what head it can be
 stoppt, I promise you,
 take my word, your
 letter shall be burnt
 you may send it by
 my son's nurse who
 comes sometimes to
 see Geringhem, my children told me
 they had seen you, &
 that you look very well which gives great pleasure to her who is entirely, yours

Caroline

a. There was an attempt to take 20000<sup>a</sup> from the Prince which Mr Clayton refused to set his hand to

b. Prince George was then alive, his nurse had been Mrs Clayton's servant.
