Mi Lady Cooper ma fait un recit, ma chere amie, qui fait venir les larmes aux yeux, Je connois votre bon coeur est accompagné, d'infinite, desprits, et tout le bon sans du monde - chose et qualitez, bien rare, particulièrement quant à son, tout ensemble, tout cela me persuade, que vous me croirez facilement, quand Je vous dirai que Monsieur Clayton, a dans cette Maison, toujours les meme amis, et que nous sommes tres persuadez que si cette affaire a dependu de son voix, il n'aurait pas resisté une moment, on est meme, assure, que si la moindre chose serait jamais agité, come Je doute, ou des enfant, domestique ou d'argent, rien ne le pourroit, changer pour estre avec ceux qui sont véritablement nos amis,

My Lady Cooper gave me an account my dear friend that made the tears come in to my eyes, I know your good heart is join'd with an infinite wit accompanied with all the good sense in the world things & qualities that are very rare, particularly join'd together, all
 which persuades me
 that you will easily believe me, when I tell you that Mr. Clayton has always in this house the same friends & that we are fully assur'd if it had depended upon his voice, He would not have hesitated a moment. We are all so assur'd, that if ever
 the least thing sh^d be stirr'd, as I doubt
 there will, either as to the children, the servants, or the revenue nothing will be able ne vous chagrine pas, pour l'amour de Dieu, le prince, et moy sai bien quelle obligation, nous avion a vous, en cette affaire, et en tout ce qui nous regarde, si vous m'aimé ne vous tourmenté plus, ⁿⁱ ^{Mon: Clayton} et croire, que je vous aime comé toujours tre tendrement,

Caroline

Je donnerais ce soir, a Doct: Clarke cette lettre, je suis, verita-blement en paine, pour votre santé, mi lady Cooper et asuré-
-ment, votre bone amie, je luy doit rendre cette justice, to charge him from being with them, who are truly his friends,

dont make yourself
uneasy for the love of God, the Prince &
we know what obligation we have to
you in this affair,
in every thing that concerns us, if you
love me dont torment
yourself any more
nor Mr. Clayton & believe that I love you as always most tenderly Caroline

I give this letter to right to doctor Clarke I am truly in pain
for your health, my lady Cooper is assur-
-edly your good friend I must doe
her that justice.

Mr. Clayton had voted in an affair agreeable to his own opinion, where Mrs Clayton had desir'd him to vote according to the inclination of the Prince & Lady Cooper had told the Queen
Her Princes, that Mrs Clayton was much concern'd that her husband had not oblig'd the

The Ministry design'd that the King sh'd chuse the servants of the Prince & the terms insist'd on for a long time before the reconcili-ation were the disposal of the children, the naming of the servants & giving up the revenue w^{ch} the pair would all be attempted in Parliament.
