

? Mon. Nov. 27 1719 (Peirage Bill)
See D. N. B. Vol. III p. 347

Je charge Doct^r Clarke I charg^d Clarke to pour vous assure ma chere - assure you my dear amie que Je vous aime tres - friend that I love you tendrement, lon dit que la Court pretends to be Cour, pretende d'être assuree care of carrying the d'apporter la bibe, Je vais Bill, I am going to vous fair la description - give you the account sur quoy nous croions de it. 141 Tories, 80 Whigs l'apporter, 141 torie, 80 veck who have always voted qui ont toujour vote contre against the court, & la Cour, et 73 des autre veck 73 other whigs who qui ont promis, et 20, dont some are dubious. He does il ont fait, tous qui pen, pour all humanly speaking ganjer, les torie, jusque a that can be done to gain leur promis de casser le the tories, soe far as to parliment, et de prendre promise dissolve the des mesure torie, a qui parliament & take lon repondre, quil les Tory measures, to which avoit trop souvent, trompe they answer, that He pour leur croire, sur une had deceiv'd them too Chapitre, qui leur fair often to be believ'd upon porter les leverais des that head, which would peirs: le minister avoit, make them wear the livery of the Peers. the Minister has given out that Hucks, Sr.
Thomas Read & Monroe
* Lord Sunderland

assurer, que Hucks Sr Tho^s Reid et Monroe, nous avons quitté, Hucks luy meme, avante hier, assurer Walpole, quil ne vouloit entreer, craint que cestoit contre le prince, Sr Tho^s Reid est violant, contre est, Mon^r Stephens de Glostershire, de meme, pour Monroe Je nen sais rien, mais il dise quil en persuader, peper et Stanwick de naker pas a la maison - voila tout mes nouvelles on latant la bile, mequendi dan la chambre Bass, adieu ma chere amie,
Je vous embrasse tendrement

Caroline

have left us. Hucks of himself the day before yesterday strongly assured Walpole, that he would not enter into it, believing it was against the prince. Sr Thomas Reid is violent against it, & Mr Stevens of Glostershire, & Monroe
I dont know, but he says he has persuaded Pepper & Stanwick
not to go to the house.
see all my news. We expect the Bill on Wednesday^x in the lower House adieu my dear friend I embrace you tenderly
Caroline

+ L^d Sunderland.

^x actually introduced Tues Dec. 1 1719