My Good Lord, Yesterday I received by the quarterly Messenger some printed Copies of the three successful prize dissertations from Göttingen, as also the Speech of the Pro Rector on declaring to who the prizes are adjudged; Doctor Langford going tomorrow to Worcester, I take this favourable Opportunity of sending a Copy of each for you. The Medal for the Theological Dissertation is now undertaken by Mr. Birch it will be doubtless the weight of the other, on one side will be my profile as on the other Medal, the Reverse is to be taken from the seal the cut some years past for you, as soon as the Drawing is prepared I will send it for your opinion.

My Account from Göttingen of the little Colony I have sent there is very favourable, all three seem highly delighted, and pleased with those that have the Inspection of them; but what pleases me most is the satisfaction they express at the Course of Theology they have begun with Professor Less; Professor Less gives these Lessons in the Classics, and has an Assistant for the rougher work; they learn History, Geography, Moral Philosophy, Mathematics, and Experimental Philosophy so that their time is fully employed; I think Adolphus at present seems the favourite of all, which from his lively manner is natural, but the good sense of Augustus within the

the end prove conspicuous, that Adolphus should have gained Frederick could not be otherwise as in stature, features, and manner I never saw two persons so much resemble each other, may the younger one do so in the qualities of the heart, which I have every reason to flatter myself

On Friday I saw Major General Wüde who told me the disagreeable quiddiness you complained of the last winter is much abated, I trust it will enable you in the Autumn to ride constantly as that is the best of all remedies.
I hope to hear from you how you approve of the small tracts I now send you believe me ever

My Good Lord
Yours most Affectionately

George B.
