

Brighton Sep: 27th 1801.

Dear Sir

I am desired by His R. H. the Prince of Wales. to present his compl: to you and Mrs Dickenson, & returns you many thanks for your kind attention, - am at the same time to beg the favour; to know by return of post, whether you applied the same Receipt the very instand the Accident happend, or some time after: for it is now a fortnight since His R. H. had this Accident but notwithstanding all the advice he had from Sargeant Keat. who has been here ever since, His R. H. intends to make a trial of it. as soon your answer returns: the Jo: perfectly recollectd Mrs D: & believe my good soblar also.

I am also greatly Obliged to you & Mrs D. for your goodness concerning myself, - I have now the pleasure of acquainting you, that I am perfectly well, & should be happy to assist in your little party; but as long it is His R. H. pleasure to take Lessons, I think it my Duty & am happy if I can afford him any pleasure; - it is probable that I may continue a long time yet, notwithstanding His R. H. has send away his Military Band.
They are gone to Windsor & are without exception the first Band in England, the only consist. of 36. able Men. - I beg my best Respects to Mr's & Miss D. & please to rember me to Mr's M. & Brother hope he conducts himself well From Dear Sir Your very Obedient Servant
C. Schraun
