

Aug. 19/1849

Excellence!

Je n'ai pas tardé de mettre votre gra-cieuse lettre du 17 du courant sous les yeux de S. Majesté, et recevi l'ordre de lui exprimer les regrets du Roi de ne pouvoir lui réserver ce soir comme le Roi passera la soirée chez le Ministre d'Autriche.

S. Majesté desire que votre Excellence restera ici demain, et seroit je très reconnaissant si votre Excellence voudra me faire dire si ce n'est possible, se dans quel hotes le passera la nuit.

Votre tres humble serviteur

Palais

Maton

19
8. 49

X
From the King to W. on his passage through in 1849
Hanover Aug 19.

Dear Buryherst

It is with great regret (Don't be surprised at this expression) that I learn of your arrival this evening, as I hardly know when I can see you, unless you consent to stay over tomorrow here. Unfortunately am I thus circumstanced, that on account of the arrival of the Grand Duchess who arrived here late last night, I could not except attending a fete given by the Austrian Minister here in honor of his Sovereign's birthday, which was yesterday. He therefore postponed his teu this evening, and consequently I shall not be at home teu late, and go I must on account of all now unfortunately going on between the several courts in Germany, and to do away with all jealousy there. I lament it the more as I should be very anxious to talk with you over all that has occurred since we last met, and God knows what will still occur, for though you know I am not given to despair I own I am

(62)
2 very uneasy as to the German question, which instead of appearing to me as likely to be settled either shortly or amicably, I fear will lead to a general war, for unless Austria & Prussia can be induced, to join hands, and act cordially and fairly, a triumph must take place between them, and if so, it will bring on an universal war. At least, I have used every exertion in my power to try to bring the two Cabinets to harmonize, but alas to little or no purpose, for I have even gone so far as to have written to the King of Prussia myself, that unless He discontinued employing and following the advice either of Radowitz, or Bunsen, in public affairs, Prussia would lose all confidence with other Cabinets, and I repeated the same to Schlegel myself, when he came to announce himself 4 weeks ago on his appointment as Minister of Foreign Affairs.

So you see I have acted most fairly and unequivocally here as I hope I shall ever do in all public and private affairs in which I am concerned.

You cannot be surprised at my being upon my guard as to the present extraordinary and suspicious conduct pursued by Peupie and these two unfortunate favourites of the King, who, believe me, are the curse of Peupie, and I fear, will be ~~the~~ its ruin. So I hope

You will manage to stay here over tomorrow.

Ever yours faithfully

King of Hanover to L<sup>d</sup>. W. on his passage through Hanover Aug. 19 1749

* ~~London~~ April 2. 1850

Dear Burges

In spite of all the information I received from different parts I cannot form to myself any clear or precise insight into how matters stand & reputations respecting Schelling & Holstein, a private notice I have had of a most extraordinary communication

A proposal said to have come from the Prussian Govt. to the Ministry at Copenhagen with a proposal of joining up & embodying Schleswig completely to the Crown of Denmark for ever & that Lauenburg & Holstein should be joined to the Prussian League & thus in fact mediated to Prussia.
 This information has come to me from a channel upon which,

 I believe, I may safely depend & I have had been received by other Govts, you must be enabled to know if there is any foundation or a shadow of truth in this history. —

Certain it is, no time ought to be lost in settling in some way or other this question &

No one can doubt that Prussia is doing all in her power to prevent rather than settle this affair. - Altogether no one can observe the conduct of the Prussian Cabinet at present without disgust and mistrust. - Best love to Prussia -

Yours faithfully
G. C. [Signature]

Hammer 2 April - 1850
From King of Hannover.

Copy.

Private

Berlin 3 April 1850

Sir

I have had the honour of receiving the letter y. m. has been kind enough to write to me, and I must be informed you that there is no truth whatever in the report which has reached you as to the proposal of the Pr<sup>m</sup> Gov<sup>t</sup> to give up Schleswig to Denmark and join Holstein and Lauenburg to the Pr<sup>m</sup> League. There was this morning a conference upon the Danish question at my House, and although the parties are still very far from being agreed, yet I have some hopes that an understanding may be arrived at. I have learnt to-day that the Assembly at Kiel have come to some some very warlike resolutions, and that in Holstein, as in every other Country where revolutions have taken place, the Parties who had raised the storm and fancied they would direct it, have been overthrown; the Statthalterschaft will, I understand be obliged to abdicate their usurped authority.

 What may be the result of this event, it is difficult to say.

I will not speak to y. M. of German affairs, you will learn them more correctly from others, but the Pr<sup>m</sup> Govt. are desirous of bringing about modifications in the proposed Constitution at Erfurt, wh the Götting Party are displeas'd at. They have already thrown out one

one Götting
 long

German
 Götting
 long

one measure in Committee which G<sup>r</sup> Bradourith had proposed. I will not longer detain y. M. but subscribe myself signed Westmorland

[Faint vertical handwriting, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side]

that where ties ied rown id be onity.
it is m re at tution pleased
A
ne

x
CopyBerlin July 11th 1850

Sir. I am sure Your Majesty will allow me to express to you the grief and sorrow with which I have learnt the death of the Duke of Cambridge. I know how deeply Your Majesty will feel this loss, I wish I could offer any words of consolation but I know, from sad experience how impossible it is to do so, at such a moment. —
Your

Your Majesty well knows how faithfully attached I was to His Royal Highness, how sincerely I appreciated his great and excellent qualities, how much I valued the kind & constant friendship he condescended to bestow upon me. - You will appreciate the deep regret I feel for this bereavement, but I will not add to <sup>His Majesty's</sup> sufferings by dwelling upon my own & will confine myself to the expression of my anxious hope that Your Majesty may bear bear up against this great affliction, & that it may not be the cause of injury to your health.

I remain Sir
your

signed Westmorland

x
H. of Hanover
Hanover Jan'y
24. 1857

Dear Burghes

It is impossible for me to allow the post to go without expressing to you the shock & the grief, the melancholy account that has just arrived, causes me to know deeply I feel for poor dear Pisilla, who has really for the last two years been almost in a constant state of worry & anxiety respecting some encumber or other of her family, & worrying as she does so tender & kind a heart, I fear how dreadfully she must be afflicted at this moment.

Except to her, if it is possible, how very deeply I feel for her & how anxious I am that her health may not give way under all she has suffered & what she must now be suffering. - Tell her at this moment I abstain from writing to her

Knowing how impossible it is to afford that comfort & consolation which every sincere friend must be most desirous to offer. With my best & kindest love to her. -

Believe me Ever yours most faithfully

Amover. Nov. 19. 1851

My Lord,

By Royal command the melancholy duty is imposed upon me of communicating to your Lordship the intelligence of the demise of His Prætor King Ernest which took place yesterday morning Nov 18. at  $\frac{11}{4}$ before 7 - A. M. - The symptoms of

His Majesty's near ap-proaching dissolution became visible about 10 o'clock on Monday Morning and continued through that day and the next night up to the above mentioned hour yesterday Morning, when it pleased the Almighty to summon the Spirit of his Majesty from this world almost without a struggle.

There were present at the bedside their Royal Highnesses the Princes of Wales and Cornwall, the Prince Alexander of Denmark and various Members of the Household.
 His present Majesty expired His Patent yesterday afternoon and was publicly proclaimed this Morning under the Announcement of the coronation of the King of Hanover to the by Mr. W. P. ...

title of George the Fifth.

I have the honor to inform, My Lord, Your Lordships most Respectfully from the Honorable Charles White with his Domestic Captain.

Several went of Carl might with despatches for the Queen Duchess of Gloucester & Duke of Cambridge & he is to go to Dublin to see the Duke

Copy.

E. of Westmorland

Vienna Nov<sup>r</sup> 27 1857

Sir.

I beg to acknowledge the letter which by Royal Command you did me the honor of addressing to me on the 19th Inst. and which conveys the melancholy intelligence of the demise of His Majesty the King of Hanover.

It is impossible for me to express how deeply I lament the loss of so excellent a Person and, true, so dear a friend, but I will trouble you to have the kindness to convey to His Present Majesty the very sincere assurances of the deep and heartfelt sympathy which I feel for Him on this occasion. I hope His Majesty's or the Queen's health may not suffer from the affliction which has come upon them and I beg you to assure them of my sincerest respect and attachment.

Apologizing for thus intruding upon you with these mispages, I beg you to believe me,

Sir

your very obedient humble servant

(signed) Westmorland

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a rectangular piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet of paper.]

Edward, at Kielmansegge

Count Kielmansegge
presents his compliments to The Earl of Westmoreland, has the honor, by order of His Majesty The King of Hanover, to transmit herewith a Wild Boar's head, intended as a present for His Lordship.

44. Grosvenor Place,
12. January 1858.

To
 His Royal Highness
 The Duke of Cumberland

Post mark Apr 2. 1813

Sir,

The inclosed letter has been written some months, but untill I saw that your Royal Highness was on the point of leaving England, I could not bring myself to the resolution of sending it, altho' I most humbly beg to assure your Royal Highness, that it has ever been my most earnest wish and intention, to offer your Royal Highness every apology in my power for my unguarded unguarded conduct

I have the honour to be

Sir

with duty and respect your Royal Highness

most obedient humble Servant

C. Forbes

To

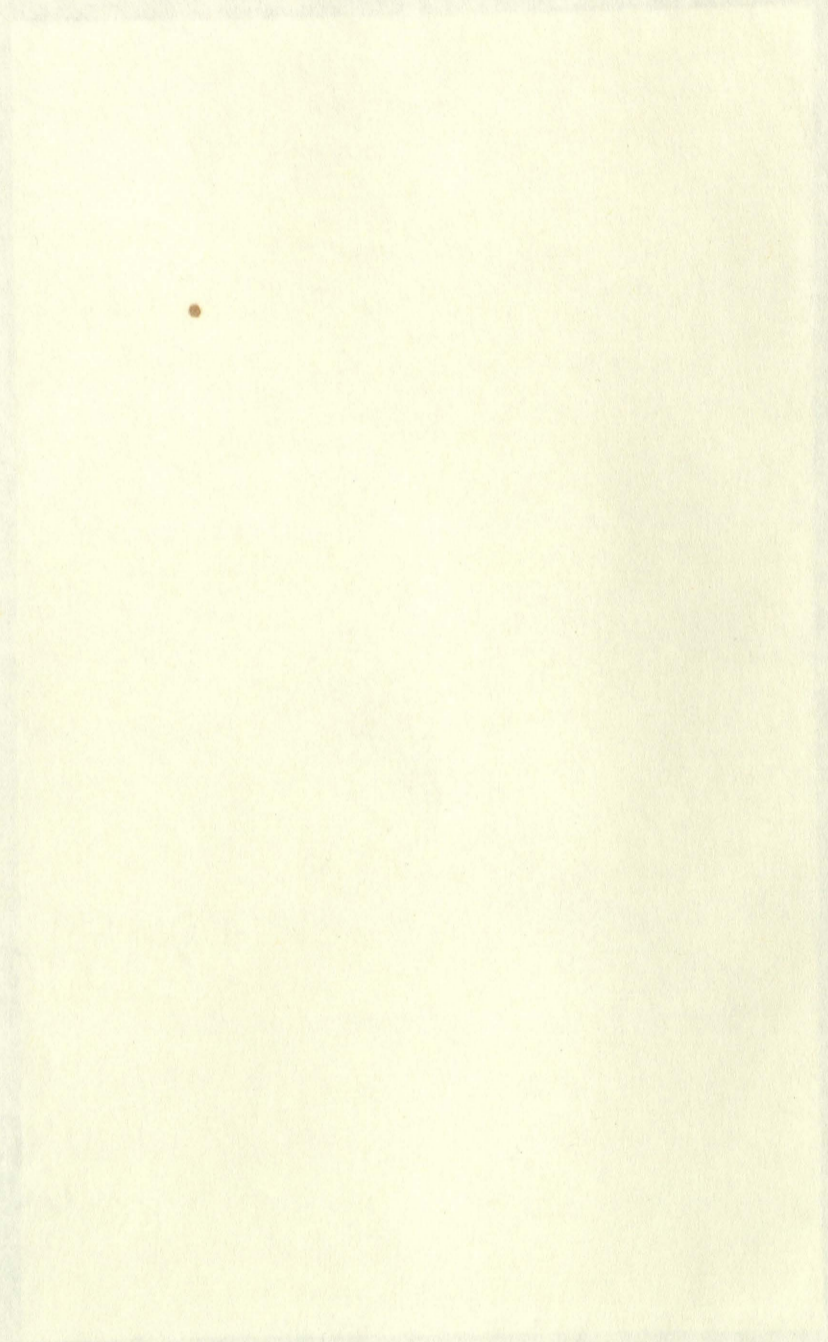

His Royal Highness

the Duke of Cumberland

Gentlemen

I beg leave to recommend to You Dr Souyer one of A. M.
 Physicians at Hannover now residing here in London & who during his Travels in foreign Countries with my Brother the Duke of Saxe has practis'd the Inoculation of the Vaccine Pox. He will shew <sup>it</sup> a great Honour in being so lucky to meet with Your Approbation. Believe me
 Gentlemen
 Yours from Obedt

P. 7/2
 George FitzGerald Esq.
 Avenue de Sceaux, Versailles,
 France.

N<sup>o</sup> 33, Surry Street, Strand

London 9th Nov<sup>r</sup> 1821

My dear Sir!

I was favored with your letter of the 2nd Instant yesterday, and lost no time in waiting on Mr. Parnall K.C. and I am much pleased to tell you that these Gentlemen assure me that the power of Bond cancelled, and a Release executed, so that you need not give yourself any uneasiness on this account. I am glad to find your health restored, and your quarters so agreeably fitted up, but as you observe very justly, where money is wanting the mind cannot enter into such scenes, however agreeable, as it would do under different circumstances; the only thing you can do is to request Mr. Beckwith to accept a bill for the amount of your Annuity, payable at the time it becomes due in January next, this I should suppose he will not refuse you, as the payment comes through his own hands, and any Banker will advance you the amount on the bill being accepted.

J

I have for the last two months, been troubled with a bilious complaint, and am recommended to try Cheltenham for its cure. I therefore propose leaving this in a week or ten days. I see by the News papers, your Father has written to Colonel Sheraton, to have apartments prepared for him, and his Family, by February next; The King is expected on Saturday. The Marquess of Londonderry arrived the day before yesterday at Ramsgate.
Believe me

My dear Sir!

Yr always Sincerely
Mich<sup>d</sup>. Cullin

Dublin March 3<sup>d</sup> 1820

Dear Clarke

I received this evening two letters from You, & in consequence of Your Commission -the instrument to You an open letter for the D. of Arundel, if You appear at, borrow from my brother a Seal with the Coat and seal it, leaving it here. You will do the needful. With respect to the other Part of your letter which, you were, of I say is so famous, and yet so guarded that I cannot properly give you a decided Answer, 1st. Where ever I find him, I know no place here in the instrument, 2<sup>d</sup> The one I trust, it could be satisfactory here putting him here, there certainly all the Elaborate words are most decidedly bad where instead of saying, they must make

Thus all, if they are not so before they entered finally must comprehend the state of things for which I saw the patient, he did not appear to me there at all in a desperate state, in the contrary except a perjured affiance of Honor, & the natural brutality of blood from the Liberator he was placed in, which was natural enough to excite indignation, I cannot say he appeared to me other than what I found here two years ago when I had one or more scenes with him, which I attribute entirely to his having found in a damned set of democrats, need as you know my politics are the very contrary to any thing of that Nature I could not suppose any thing very plain in that subject. You also have seen him so very kindly so often used to all the judges there I can hardly be, but I believe we were better than one detained to all the enquiry of the person he was with, I cannot suppose that said person has influenced his mind or prejudiced it. However all I can say you & B. will must act for the best, for really I can not at this distance, & so little informed on the subject form an opinion. Your old friend for us must convince us that your opinion will be the most judicious. But then you are to do pray unite with blacker such, for I should be much surprised your conduct so oddly expressed it was. Probably this is owing to my stupidity, but upon my word I read it repeatedly and yet cannot comprehend completely, besides your book is so full that it gives me infinite trouble to read.

Yours very sincerely
 C. Smith

E. Augustus (1771-1851) King of H.
 D. of C.
 512 2001

30 March 1026

GEO/ADDR/75A

75

To The Rev<sup>d</sup>
Thomas B. Clarke
D.D.

T. P. L.
Post-Mail

Phillimore Place
Kensington
London

Emitt

GEO.ADDL.MSS. 8

GEO/ADD/8175C

[11 July 1826]

Fellinger's Works were not to be found here and as my own, I shall however try to find out if an edition exists at the Royal library at Gottingen; all the Information I have been able to procure for you is from an certain Fabianus and I have had a certificate Lyhart made from that book which I enclose for your Information, and I presume any further document you may depend on concerning it. Let me know if this that I send you is of any use, but pray write with the bladder I ask, and more distinctly than your last letters have been, for as before said I cannot decipher them

GEO. ADDL. MSS. 8

GEO/ADD/8/76A

T. F. Pall-Mall

76

To Mr. P. R. D.
Thomas B. Clarke D.D.
Philosophy Place
Kensington

Pall-Mall London

Ernest

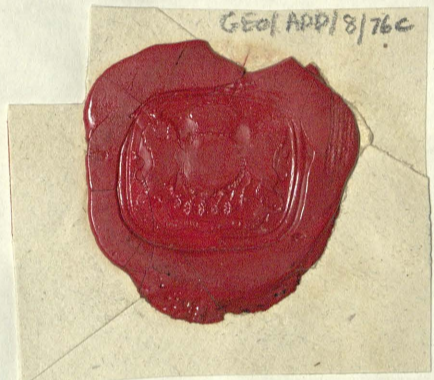

GEO/ADD/8/76B

Dublin Aug 28 1826
15. 1826

Dear Clarke

I have received but thought two letters from you, but you have a hundred Factors of mine dating there, which you see when I say is every bad practice, as I was nearly ever judge, neither is not your hand raised my letters. This must therefore be the case now, for you must have long as this hour received a letter from me which must show you, you are under a total mistake as as to the identity of that Ball said to you, I had a sleep from my brother claiming me to have been my Apartment and I wish in consequence a letter to Ball which he ought to have shown you, in which I desired him to tell you of these circumstances and that I wished you could look up any

GEO/ADD/8/76C

Strongly, I am obliged in paper keeping about in my corner, this was not from any idea of any neglect but entirely accidental that it was completed long in the corner, till happily completed at the end of the year. So now I hope you will understand my meaning and not allow you to reflect and fancy me to think I had any other idea, but as I had my apartments to my father, I wish to place all papers however trivial I had left preserved in my corner. God bless you dear friend, & be assured my regard is ever as usual for you.

Yours very sincerely

Ernest

Copy of the Queries

- 1st Query - Of how many books Nols Felbinger's Epistola ad Christianos consist?
- 2<sup>d</sup> Query - Of how many pages?
- 3<sup>d</sup> Query - What are the words of the first paragraph?
- 4th Query - What are the words of the last paragraph?
- 5th Query - Is there any Latin Work which gives a particular account of all the writings of Felbinger?

Spring Garden Terrace

15 Nov 1826.
1826

My dear Sir

I hope you are returned from Brighton with a good stock of health. I received your favor till yesterday — I have got our Book from the Bankers, by which it appears that the balance in our favour is £425-11-. I am from Putney every morning (except Saturdays) at 11 o'clock & return at 3-and shall be glad to see you when ever it will be convenient to you to favor me with a call. — We must consult in the best mode to raise the Cash to supply your <sup>wants</sup> ~~with~~ money. — The Duke's Commands however to obey your Commands —

I remain my dear Sir ever

Your very truly,
Chas B. Cooke

GEO/ADD/8/78B

P.P.
R. Arcade

To The Rev D<sup>r</sup> Clarke, or

Leedsington.

Copper
Fellows
Dean.

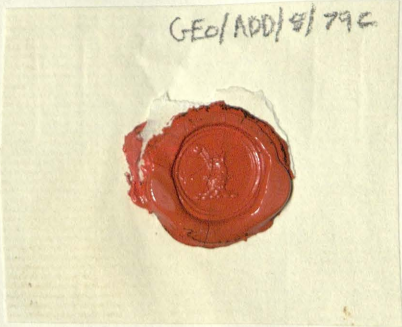

GEO/ADD/8/79C

79

GEO/ADD/8/79B

Pall Mall

14th Dec:

[1827]

My dear Sir

In considering the subject of your letter that upon the occurrence of the event which you anticipate, you will become the sole Trustee, & consequently have the sole power over the Fund in question.

GEO/ADD/8/79A

Sir F. Watson

T. T.
Pall-Mall

Mrs. D. Blake

25 Upper Phillimore Place

Windsor

At present this is all which occurs to me upon the subject but I think you would be correctly informed at the Bank.

My dear Sir,
Very faithfully Yours

Wm. D. Watson

GEO/ADD/8/80A

Sir Fred<sup>d</sup> P. Motson

The Rev<sup>d</sup> D. Clarke

Phillimore Place
Kensington

2/ post

GEO/ADD/8/80B

Royal Lodge
16 Dec
[1827]

My dear Sir

I can only repeat my former observation, that I conceive the surviving Trustee is the person to act; the power vesting in him -

The sources from whence the revenue was derived, I conceive to have been the Duke's Banker for St. B. St. Anns; and Cutts for

At Mr. Annet's - but I think that Dicknell's Clerk could give you correct & satisfactory information on the subject - which I find myself unable to do with any certainty.

Very faithfully Yours
Wm. D. Watson