

The background of the image is a traditional marbled paper pattern, often referred to as a 'shell' or 'stone' pattern. It features intricate, swirling designs in shades of blue, green, yellow, and red, set against a light cream or off-white base. The patterns are dense and cover the entire surface. In the center, there is a rectangular label with a thin black border. The text on the label is written in a cursive hand. At the top of the label, there is a small handwritten note: '350 (Box) 6/2i'. Below this, the main text reads: 'Prince of Wales and Prince Frederick Account 10th October 1778.'
