The background is a traditional marbled paper pattern, often called 'stone' or 'shell' marbling. It features intricate, swirling, and cell-like patterns in shades of deep red, ochre yellow, and a muted teal or blue-green. The colors are layered and blended, creating a rich, textured appearance. In the center, there is a rectangular piece of aged, cream-colored paper with handwritten text in cursive script. The text is written in dark ink and is neatly arranged. At the top right of the paper, there is a small handwritten note 'Box 6/96'. The main text reads: 'Their Royal Highnesses', 'The Younger Princes', 'Account', 'Quarter Ending 5th April', and 'His Majesty. 1782.'. A small 'x' is written at the bottom right corner of the paper.
