committed to him by Your Majesty, without begging leave to lay at your Majesty's feet the expression of his acknowledgements, for the condescending kindness with which Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to receive his imperfect endeavours in the discharge of his duty. He is deeply sensible how much the state of his health has interfered with it, and how much he absolutely necessary for his recovery, he proposes to leave London till Easter; but he hopes after that time to be able values this privilege, both as a mark of Your Majesty's gracious approbation, and as affording him an opportunity of proving that dutiful and grateful attachment to Your Majesty, which must ever be impressed upon his mind.

Tuesday Jan 8th 1805

Mr Pitt has the honor of acquainting your Majesty that the very unexpected Communication from France which is transmitted herewith, arrived at the Foreign Office at a very late hour last night. Mr Pitt trusts your Majesty will approve of his having lost no Time in laying Mr Saylerand's Letter before your Majesty's Confidential Servants. As contrary to usual Form no copy was transmitted to the Secretary of State of the letter addressed to your Majesty, your Majesty's servants conceived it their Duty to open that Letter, and to consider what Opinion they might venture humbly to submit to your Majesty on its Contents.

It appeared to them to be evident both from the Nature of the Communication, and from its assuming a Title which your Majesty has not acknowledged, that it could not very favorable Prospect of being able to effect a Concert with Prussia to which Austria may probably accede, It would be beneath to point out that your Majesty's Wishes are directed ^{to} such a Peace ^{only,} as may provide both for the Interests of this Country and of Europe, and that your Majesty would not enter into any Explanation without previous Communication with ~~the~~ Powers. With this View the enclosed Draft is humbly submitted to your Majesty's Consideration as the substance of a Note which (if it should receive your Majesty's Approbation), may be transmitted has had with the Duke of Portland he finds that the Duke feels at all events desirous of relinquishing the Office of Lord President, on Chancellorship of the Duchy or any other Office.

sees nothing to prevent the Appointment of Mr Addington and Lord Buckinghamshire as well as that of Lord Malvern taking place on Friday if it should be convenient to your Majesty to hold a Council on that day, by which time it will also be desired that the order for Resolutions and a Declaration against Spain should take place. - Mr Pitt finds that the Rank in the Peerage which will be most agreeable to Mr Addington (if your Majesty approves of it) will be that of a Viscount, by the Title of Viscount inform Your Majesty that there appears to be a serious Difficulty with respect to Lord Raleigh being declared President of the Council tomorrow. It is impossible that His Patent should pass the Great Seal so soon as tomorrow and though the Act of passing the Patent after Your Majesty has signed the Warrant has been generally considered as purely ma-terial no Peer is really in possession of the Rights and Privileges of Peerage until the Patent is completed Under these Circumstances it is submitted to Your Majesty that it may be irregular and inexpedient to declare a Person President of the Council in in a Record by a Title of which he is not yet fully in Possession, but this need not interfere with Lord Raleigh's having the Honour of kissing Your Majesty's Hand for the Passage before the Privy Council tomorrow and if Your Majesty should think proper a Council may be assembled on Monday for the Purpose of declaring Lord Raleigh President of the Council

The very great Indulgence, with which Your Majesty has been to lay before You, during the time Your Majesty has thought fit to employ me in Your service, encourages me to hope, that, Your Majesty will not receive, with less favorable dispositions, the statement which I feel it to be my Duty no longer to defer laying at Your Majesty's Feet, & that Your Majesty will not refuse your assent to a Request, which I trust it must be obvious, can be imputable only to the same Antients which have made me feel myself indispensibly, called upon to entreat your Majesty's gracious consideration of the case which I am impelled to submit to your Majesty —

A long Illness, of several months continuance, has, in a great measure, prevented my fulfilling the Duties of the high Station to which it has been your Majesty's Pleasure to appoint me, & has wholly deprived me of the power of performing the most essential part of it, distinguished mark of favor which your Majesty was pleased to offer to confer upon me in the course of last Spring.

Upon consulting those Medical Persons, to whose Advice I have been in the habit of having recourse, It seems impossible to ascertain with any degree of precision, the probable period of my present official Inability to permit me to lay at your Feet the Office I hold, which, as long as it was in my power to execute, ^{it} to the satisfaction of your Majesty, contributed not less to the Happiness than to the Honor of my life but which, in the present uncertain state of my health, your

Most Gracious Sovereigns

We Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, humbly beg leave to return Your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for Your Most Gracious Speech from the Throne.

We beg leave to assure Your Majesty, that this House reflects with the greatest Pride and Satisfaction, that the Skill and Intrepidity of Your Majesty's Navy, the respectable and formidable state of Your Army and Militia, the unabated Zeal and improved Discipline of a numerous Volunteer Force, and the general Ardor manifested by all Classes of Your Majesty's Subjects, have notwithstanding the incessant Preparations for the Invasion of this Kingdom, been sufficient to deter the Enemy from so presumptuous and desperate an Enterprize. We fully concur and participate in Your Majesty's Majesty's Sentiments that while this Spirit continues to animate the Country, and its voluntary Exertions for its own Defence subsist in their full Vigour, We need not fear the Consequences of the most powerful efforts on the Part of the Enemy; and We entreat Your Majesty to be assured that We shall never forget that our Security has arisen from the resolution with which We have met and provided against the danger, and that it can be preserved only by steady Perseverance and unremitting Activity.

We request Your Majesty to accept our warmest Acknowledgments for the Communication which Your Majesty has been pleased to make to Us relative to the War which Spain has declared against this Country; and We entreat Your Majesty to allow us to express the just Sense We entertain of Your Majesty's Gracious Condescension in having directed a Copy of the Manifesto, which Your Majesty has caused to be prepared on this Occasion, to be laid before Us, together with such Papers as are necessary to explain the Discussions which have taken place between Your Majesty and the Court of Madrid.

and to assure Your Majesty that We shall take them into our immediate and serious Consideration, with the full Resolution of adopting all such Measures as are necessary to maintain the Honor and Dignity of Your Majesty's Crown and the Security and Interests of Your Dominions.

We entreat Your Majesty to be persuaded that it is impossible for us not to observe in common with all Europe that the general Conduct of the French Government on the Continent has been marked by the utmost Violence and Outrage, and has shewn a wanton defiance of the Rights of neutral Territories, of the acknowledged Privileges of accredited Ministers, and of the established Principles of the Law of Nations.

We return Your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for informing us that notwithstanding these Transactions, so repugnant to every Sentiment of Moderation and Justice, Your Majesty has recently received a Communication from the French Government, containing Professions of a pacific Disposition, and we humbly request Your Majesty

Majesty to be assured that We are thoroughly persuaded of Your Majesty's earnest wish to embrace the first Opportunity of restoring the blessings of Peace, on such grounds as may be consistent with the permanent Safety and Interests of Your Dominions. — We at the same time on our part beg leave to be allowed to declare our entire Concurrence in Opinion with Your Majesty that those Objects are closely connected with the general Security of Europe — We therefore rejoice to learn that Your Majesty is engaged in confidential Intercourse and Connection with Foreign Powers with a view to that important Object, and especially with the Emperor of Russia, who has given the strongest proof of the wise and dignified Sentiments, by which he is animated, and of the warm Interest which he takes in the Safety and Independence of Europe — And We are fully satisfied of the propriety and Wisdom of Your Majesty's determination in declining to enter into any more particular Explanations without a previous Communication with those Powers.

We beg leave with every Sentiment of respect and dutiful Attachment to Your Majesty to testify our most grateful Sense of Your Majesty's uniform regard for the welfare of Your People, and to assure Your Majesty, that in considering the great Efforts and Sacrifices which the nature of the Contest requires, We most cordially participate with Your Majesty in the Satisfaction which Your Majesty derives from the many Proofs of the internal Wealth and Prosperity of the Country, and Your Majesty may depend upon our constant and animated endeavours to maintain and improve these Advantages, and at the same time to take all such Measures, as by enabling Your Majesty to prosecute the War with Vigor, may afford the best prospect of bringing it to a safe and honorable termination.

Ordered, That the said Address be presented to His Majesty by the whole House.

unbounded Kindness which Lord Charles does not pretend to have deserv'd. he presumes to hope that His Majesty will extend his Goodness so far, as to permit him to continue to enjoy the Appointment at the Pay Office that he now holds. That in Canada, that has been allotted to, would in no point of view be advantageous

It is with great reluctance that Mr Pitt at any time resorts to any Proposal which does not appear to meet your Majesty's Wishes, but he considers it on every account his Duty not to disguise from your Majesty how much his Feelings are wounded and his Hopes of contributing to your Majesty's Service impaired by your Majesty's apparent disregard of his Recommendation of the Bishop of Lincol.

to succeed to the Archbishoprick of Canterbury.

He entreats your Majesty's permission humbly to represent that such a Recommendation appears to have been graciously accepted for a long Course of Time in every Instance but that of the Recommendation of the last Archbishop, which cannot well be considered as an Exception to the Practice because it took place in the Interval between the Resignation of one Administration and the Appointment of another. W Pitt has already had the honor of fully submitting to your Majesty the Grounds on which he rests The Bishop of Lincoln's Qualifications for this important Situation. He feels them to be such as to afford no just Ground for giving a Preference to The Bishop of Norwich, and under these Circumstances He must entreat Your Majesty's Permission to state that Your Majesty's Refusal to comply with his request can hardly be understood by himself, and will certainly not be understood by the Public in any other light than as a decisive mark of Your Majesty's not honouring ^{him} with that degree of Weight and Confidence which his Predecessors have enjoyed, and without which Your Majesty must be sensible how impossible it is, especially under the present Circumstances that he can conduct your Majesty's Affairs with Advantage.

Mr Pitt, who flatters himself that if your Majesty condescends to weigh these Considerations, It cannot be your Majesty's Intention to reduce him to so mortifying and disreputing a Situation. The Sense of what he feels due to your Majesty's Service as well as to himself has made him anxious to submit this Representation to your Majesty previous to his having the honor of attending your Majesty at the Queen's Palace tomorrow.

Ld. Camden

11549 - 50

Ld. Camden has hitherto foreborne to trouble your Majesty on the Subject of the Defences of that Part of the Southern District which have been peculiarly under the Consideration of Her Royal Highness the Commander in Chief & the Marble Gen. of the Ordnance until He was enabled to transmit to your Majesty the final Opinions on that Subject. Ld. Camden conceives He shall bring under your Majesty's Consideration the whole of this Subject in the most intelligible manner, by referring your Majesty to the enclosed Memorandum & He has also the Honour to transmit to your Majesty the correspondence which has passed on the Subject, if your Majesty shall wish to refer to it:

Lord Camden has further the Honour to inform your Majesty, that your Majesty's servants after a long consideration of this Subject, by leave to state to your Majesty, their Opinion that, "concerning it to be a point of the utmost importance, that the Line of Coast particularly under consideration should be rendered as defensible as humbly submit to your Majesty that the interior Defences & the works recommended by the Com^o in Chief as well as the Towers on the coast recommended by the Master Gen^l of the Ordnance should be adopted: altho' they will be attended with a considerable Expence.

Your Majesty shall be graciously pleas'd to approve that the works thus recommended shall be carried into execution. Ld Camden hopes to receive your Majesty's Pleasure thereupon, which He will immediately report to his Royal Highness the Command in Chief & the Master Gen^l of the Ordnance.

The notice which Your Majesty was most graciously pleased to issue for approving of the exchange taking place between Major General Frederick of the first Regiment of Guards & Lord Frederick Bountick having been accepted, by the great goodness of His Royal Highness the Duke of York to the Duke of Portland, he anxiously hopes that he shall not incur Your Majesty's displeasure, if his anxiety to lay his
