

hd. Warwickshire

11921-2

St James's Square
Jan^y 5 1806

Lord Howkesbury presents his humble Duty to your Majesty and has the Honour to enclose several Papers on the Subject of the Difference which has arisen between the Lord Mayor and the Aldermen of your Majesty's City of London, as to the Station which the Lord Mayor is to take within the City of London in the Procession on the occasion of Lord Nelson's Funeral, a Question which is become of more Importance than might otherwise be thought, from the Cathedral of St Pauls being intended as a Place for Publick Ceremonials in future Lord

Lord Hawkesbury has attended to what both Parties have advanced upon the occasion and as far as any Research has been hitherto made there does not appear to be any Precedent distinctly in Point. The Lord Mayor has certainly taken Precedence immediately after your Majesty in all Instances in which your Majesty or any of your Predecessors have come into the City, but the Herald's contend that these Instances furnish no Precedent for the Situation of the Lord Mayor when your Majesty is not present, as his Rank on these occasions arises from his carrying the City's Sword, which your Majesty returns to him and which becomes

hd. Warwickshire

11922

a sword of state. The Lord Mayor uses the Commission of Oyer and Terminer for the City of London (a copy of which is herewith sent) and which gives him Precedency before the Lord Chancellor and all other of whatever Rank therein named. Lord Mansfield has communicated with the Attorneys and Solicitor Gen^l on the subject they incline to favour the Claim of the Lord Mayor, but they strongly recommend a Warrant conformable to that which Lord Mansfield has sent, which leaves the question open to further investigation and saves the Rights of every other person, but refers to the Lord Mayor pro pac vice the Station he would have

10 have held if your Majesty had been present Lord Hawkeburns request to receive your Majesty's commands on the Subject. If the Warrant should appear to your Majesty to be objectionable there does not seem to be any other course than not to march at all the Lord Mayor or the Magistracy of the City of London on this occasion a Decision which would create a considerable degree of uneasiness and I know and which it would be very desirable to avoid unless your Majesty should be of opinion that very decided Reasons exist against the Mode which Lord Hawkeburns has taken the Subjects to suggest

The King of Prussia
January 6. 1806

Fredk Km. III

11923

Monsieur Mon Frère. Le Baron de Harroby Conseiller intime actuel de Votre Majesté, qu'Elle a jugé à propos d'envoyer en Mission extraordinaire à ma Cour, étant sur le point de retourner auprès d'Elle, Je Me fais un plaisir de rendre justice au zèle et à la prudence que ce Ministre éclairé a déployés en s'acquittant de la Commission dont il étoit chargé. Il aura l'honneur de vous témoigner Sire, que si le changement absolu des circonstances, et notamment la paix particulière récemment conclue par la Cour de Vienne, ont du nécessairement amener un nouvel ordre de choses, Mes sentimens pour Votre Majesté n'en sont et n'en demeureront pas moins permanens et invaria-bles, et que dans ces circonstances même, Je chercherai à les Lui prouver par tous les moyens qui dépendront de Moi. Je La prie de permettre, que Je Me réfère au compte qu'il aura soin de Lui rendre des événemens dont il a été à même de prendre connoissance et de vouloir en particulier, recevoir de sa bouche, l'assurance que Je l'ai prié de vous renouveler Sire, et que Je M'empresse de vous présenter ici, de l'Amitié et de la grande Considération avec laquelle Je suis,

Monsieur Mon Frère,

De Votre Majesté

le bon Frère

Friedrich Guillaume

Berlin
le 6. Janvier 1806.

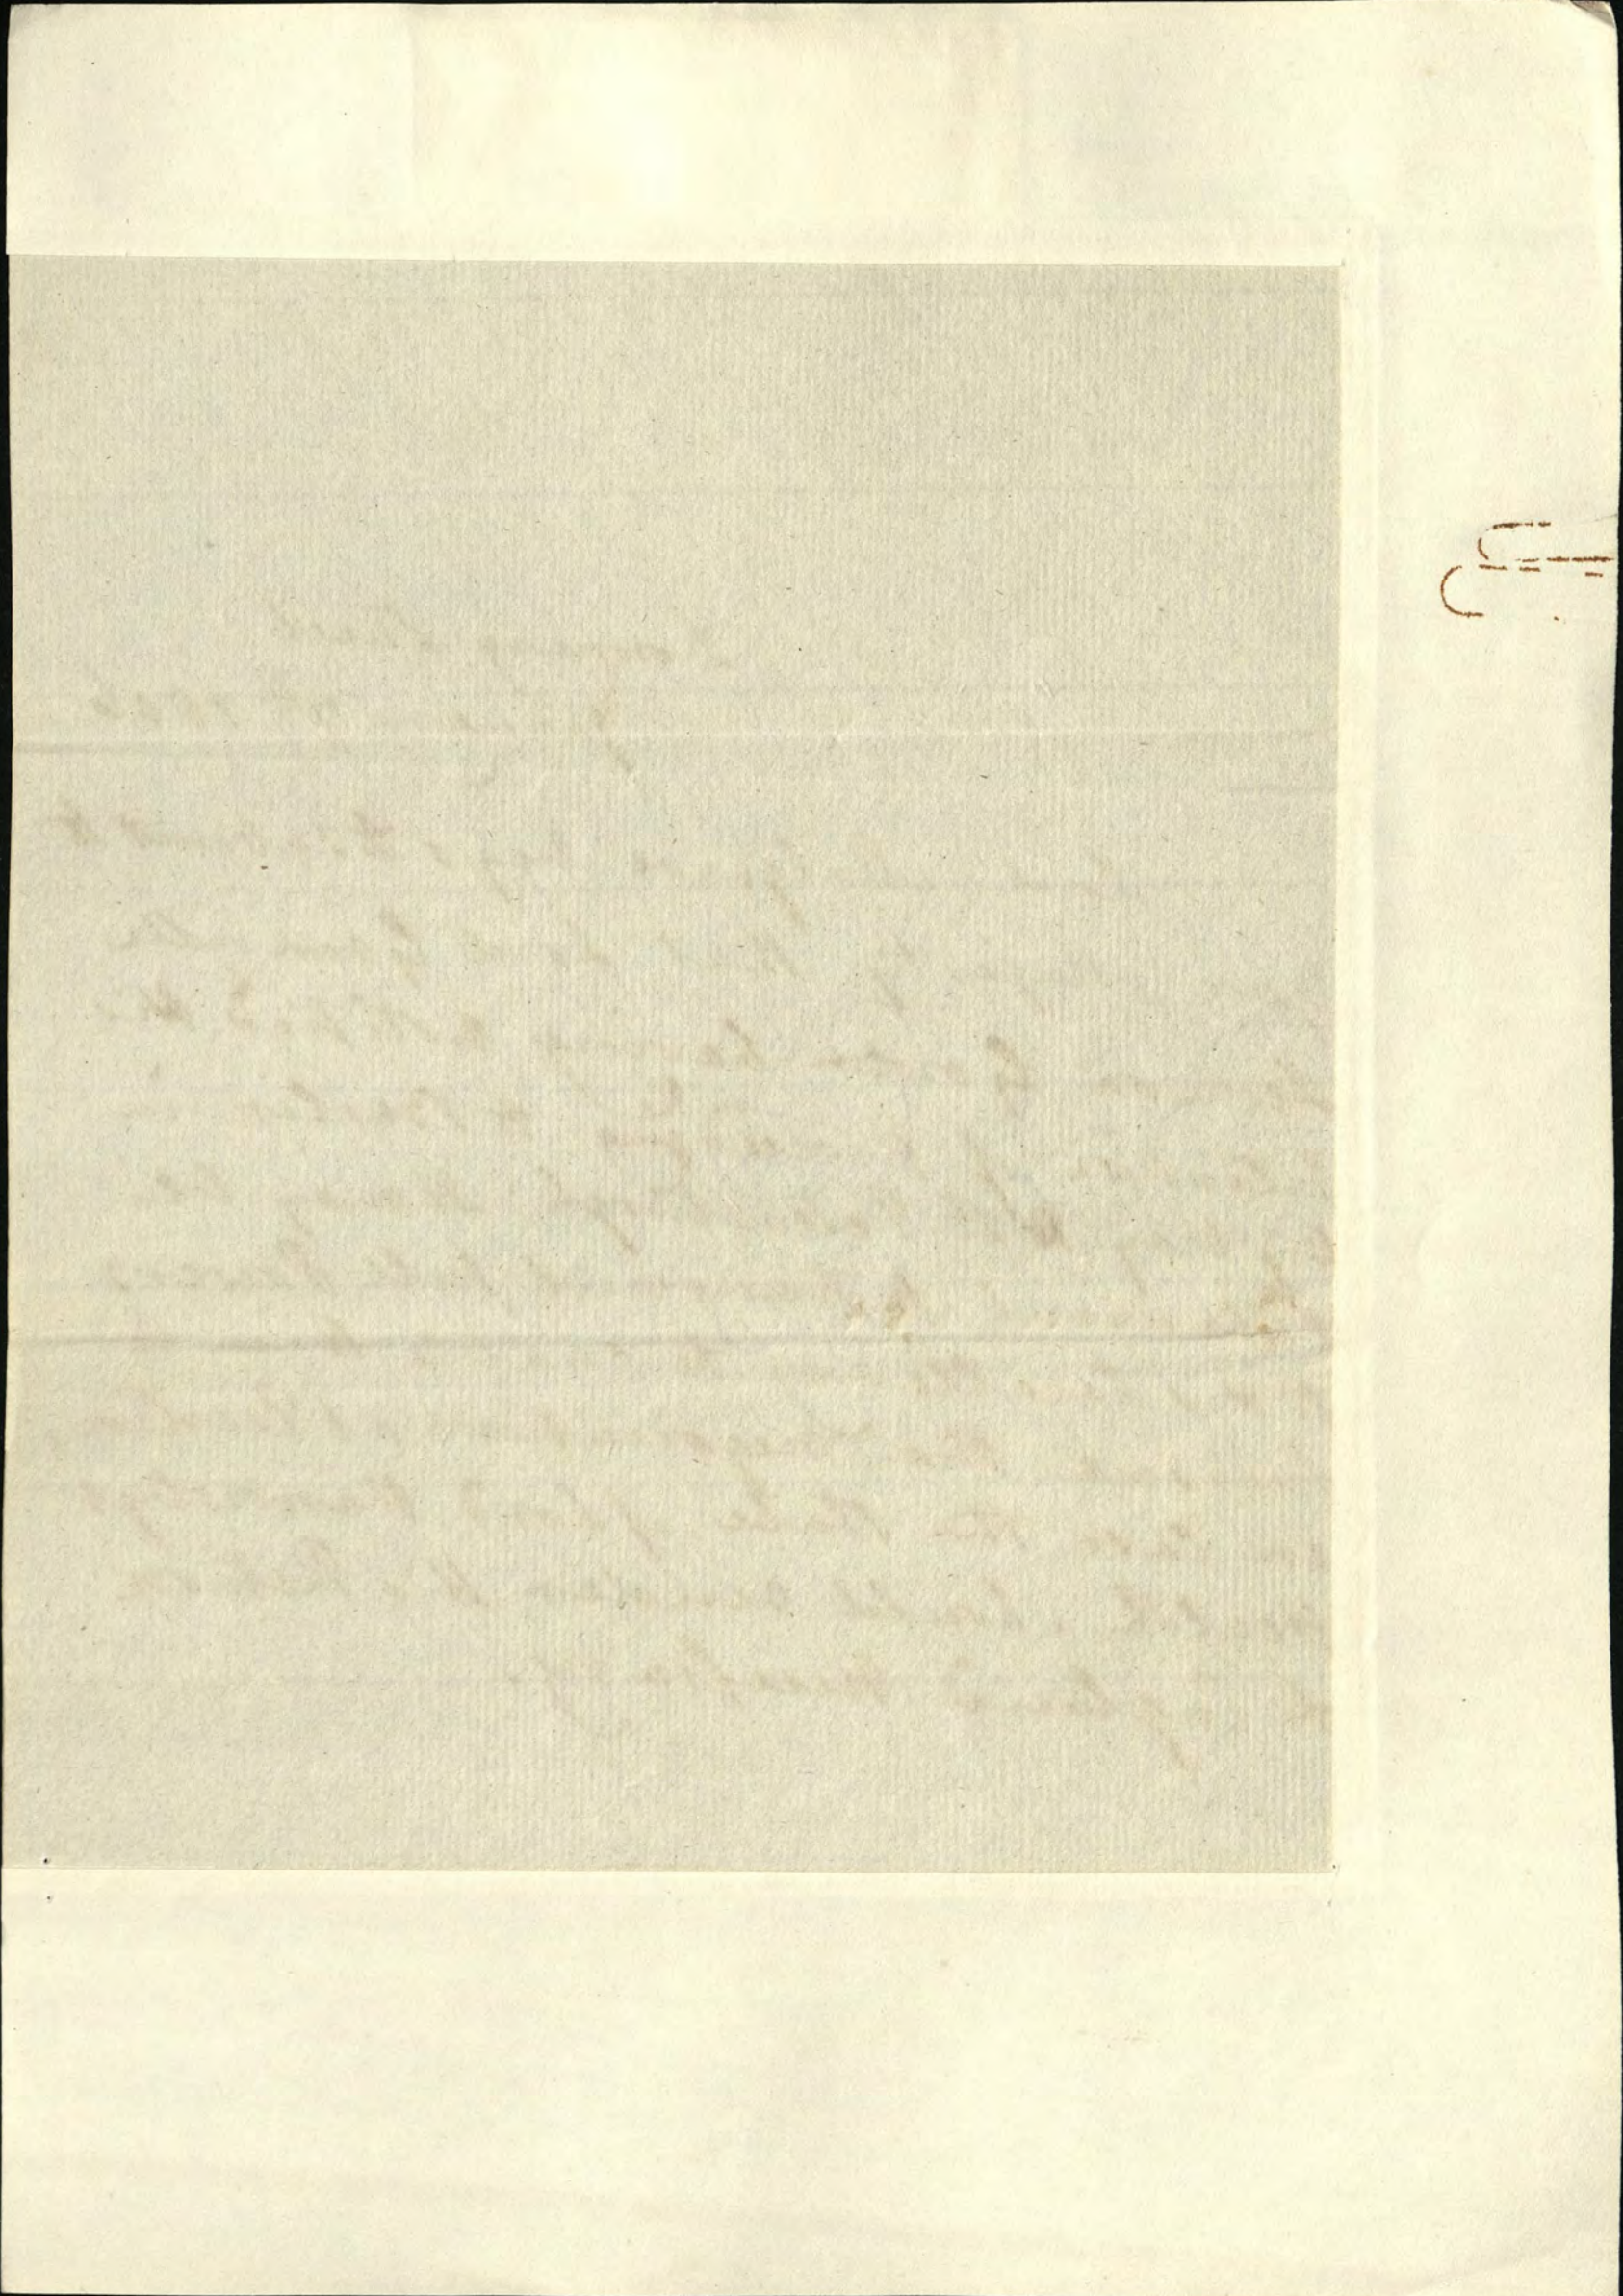

Lord Mulgrave

January 7th 1806

11924

Downing Street
January 7th 1806

Lord Mulgrave begs to submit to Your Majesty, that Lord Granville Levison Gower having notified his intention of proceeding to Berlin in his way to St. Petersburg; It may be expedient to transmit full Powers to His Excellency to enable Him to pursue the negotiations at Berlin, in case the state of Lord Harrowbys Health, should render His Return to England necessary.

Lord Mulgrave
January 8th 1806

11925

Downing Street
January 8th 1806

Lord Mulgrave has the Honour to submit to your Majesty that, in the event of Lord Granville Leveson Gower having quitted Berlin on His return to St. Petersburg, the conduct of the negotiation at Berlin might be transferred to the Earl of Harrington, if Lord Harrowby should return to England.
Lord Mulgrave has the Honour to transmit full Powers for your Majestys Royal Signature, If this suggestion should receive your Majestys gracious approbation.

Ld. Castlereagh to Lt. Col. Herbert Taylor

Jan. 11 1806

11926-7

Most Secret

Having this Submitting Right January 11th 1806

My Dear Sir

The accompanying Secret Intelligence has satisfied his Majesty's servants, that we have nothing to expect, whatever we may have to fear, from the unanimous and unvarying Policy of the Court of Berlin - Under these circumstances, it has been thought highly accepting to approve such a measure, I look at least without delay of this information, in order that they may adopt the necessary measures for the security of his Majesty's Treasures, whose safety cannot without ~~imminent~~ hazard be entrusted to a Power, that we have every reason to apprehend would sacrifice them, rather than commit herself

In the event of the Evacuation of the Electorate, it may deserve his Majesty's early

Ld. Castlereagh to Lt. Col. Herbert Taylor

Jan. 11 1806

11927 consideration how far it may be worth for his Majesty's future interests and those of his ^{political} subjects, that it should fall into the custody of Prussia, if possible under some distinct understanding as to restitution on a Peace, or be abandoned to the Emperor - In the latter case it is not improbable, that France if she does not employ it, as an object of negotiation with Prussia, may in the present state of her Power incorporate it with Holland, in order thereby to extend her influence over the Northern Rivers - Great after the declared desire of Pointe to obtain it, that it is a choice between facts, but whatever his Majesty may in his wisdom determine upon this Point, it is ~~very~~ ~~the~~ ~~most~~ ~~that~~ ~~it~~ ~~should~~ be communicated to his servants on the Contents without delay, in order that they may regulate their Conduct, as far as circumstances will permit, accordingly

5a

I enclose the Instructions which have been transmitted this Evening to Lord Coleridge also, the Copy of a private letter addressed by me to Lord Harcourt, enclosing the same for his Lordship's Information together with the Secret Intelligence above alluded to

Yours Dear Sir
Yours faithfully
Carter

L^d Col. Taylor

Lt. Col.
Herbert
Taylor
to Ld.
Castlereagh

Most Secret.

11928-9

Windsor January 12th 1866

My Dear Lord,

I have had the pleasure of submitting to the King, Your Lordship's letter marked Secret of last night, the accompanying Secret Intelligence, and the Drafts of letters to Lord Karsorby and Luttrell and His Majesty has commended me to recommend Your Lordship that He entirely coincides in the Opinion stated in Your letter, that there is nothing to apprehend, although possibly much to fear from the pusillanimous and temporizing Policy of the Court of Berlin, and, under these circumstances, His Majesty cannot but entirely approve the Instructions given to Lord Karsorby and Luttrell which have in view the immediate Adoption of the necessary measures for the Security of His Majesty's Troops now in the North of Germany. - There is only one point in the Instructions to Lord Luttrell upon which His Majesty was pleased to order me to observe. - His Lordship is desirous immediately to embark and hold in readiness to sail on the Return of the Messengers from Berlin, the new Hanoverian Service, whereas His Majesty is of Opinion that it is highly desirable and important that such Dispositions should be extended to the whole of His

The Right Honble
Lord Percival Luttrell

Hanoverian

Hannoverian Troops, the Removal of which under present circumstances should not be subject to any delay which might eventually affect their Security.

Upon the Question, whether, in the Event of the Evacuation of the Electorate, His Majesty may consider it most for His future Interests and those of His Electoral Subjects, that it should pass into the Custody of Prussia under some Understanding as to Restoration on a Peace, or be abandoned to the Enemy, His Majesty has commanded Me to convey in terms most positive and unequivocal His Decision in favour of the latter Alternative, however painful and distressing to His Mind. — His Majesty was pleased to observe that it is a question of which He has been some time in the expectation, One which He has fully considered in all His Proceedings, and upon which His Sentiments have been invariably consistent, that the Occupation of His Electoral Dominions by an open Enemy was preferable to their Possession by a treacherous friend whose ultimate Views upon them have been ever suspected and of late avowed almost without disguise. Whilst the Electorate is taken forcible Possession of by an open Enemy, any Arrangement which may take place, will not be the Result of an Agreement on the part of His Majesty which might

might throw Difficulties in the way of a Restitution as a Peace, but if a. Occupation by Prussia is sanctioned by His Majesty, even under present circumstances, and as a temporary Measure, there would be too much Reason to apprehend from the acknowledged Views of Prussia, and Her general Conduct, that when the Question of Restitution is brought forward, every possible Difficulty and Obstacle would be thrown in the way, and Claims be produced which it would be almost impossible to satisfy.

In forming this Decision, His Majesty has not lost Sight of the relative Situation of His Electoral Subjects, being convinced that they have not more to dread from the Presence and Conduct of French Troops than from the Exactions of Prussia. — His Majesty has further commanded me to say that He trusts that His Government will never consent to the Conclusion of any Peace with France which does not provide for the Restitution of His Electorate, that He considers that He and His Family are entitled to the utmost Support of this Country in the Attainment of this Object, and that His Majesty owes it to Himself, to the Dignity and Interests of His Family and to every Consideration which attaches Him to His Electoral Subjects not to sacrifice His Rights upon this Occasion.

60 I have endeavored to state as correctly as I am able, His Majesty's Sentiments upon this important Subject and I hope that your Lordship will excuse any apparent Inaccuracy

I have the Honor to

Signe
W. Taylor

Approved
Ed

Copy of a letter from Archd.
Taylor to Lord Mordaunt dated London 12th June 1682

Ld. Castlereagh to Lt. Col. Herbert Taylor
Should follow 11931-2

11930
Private copy

Downing Street Sunday
May 12th 1816

My Dear Sir,

I beg you will acquaint the Army, that on the receipt of your letter this morning, I instantly dispatched a Messenger to Berlin, that Lord Newcastle might receive the earliest Information of His Majesty's Sentiments with respect to the Electoral Seat Lord Castlereagh should consider the suggestion with respect to the immediate Embarkation of the Troop, nearest to the Transport Instituted upon His General Arrangements for the Security of the Army, I have written a private letter to His Lordship in Conformity to His Majesty's Commands which the Messenger will deliver on his way to Berlin.

W^m Taylor

I am Sir
Yours
signed Castlereagh

Private Copy
Downing Street June 12th
From Lord Castlereagh to Mr Colond Taylor

hd. Castlereagh to Lt. Col. Herbert Taylor
Jan. 12 1806

11931 - 2

Private

Downing Street
12th Jan 1806

My Dear Sir

Not deeming myself authorized without the King's express Commands, to bring under the Consideration of his Majesty's Servants any Question, so barely appertaining to his Majesty's Electoral Councils, as that of considering, in the Case of the Protestants being compelled to evacuate Hanover, how the future Security of the Electorate could best be provided for, I did not feel myself competent, upon receipt of your Letter of yesterday to do more than approve Lord Hervey's confidence of what I had reason to suppose was his Majesty's sentiments on this Subject, lest his Lordship

1891

Copy

and Lord Cathcart ought in the Execution of their orders from hence, ^{inadvertently} ~~contravene~~ in any degree the views of the King's Electoral government on a point of such moment to the future interests of his Majesty's former Dominions

That the King will consider that I am now only discharging a personal duty to his Majesty, by humbly recommending, so far as his Majesty's orders to his Electoral servants may in any degree depend on the advice, which his Majesty's Confidential servants might under any circumstances, either now or hereafter deem it their duty to offer to his Majesty, that before the same be hd. Castlebrough to Lt. Col. Herbert Taylor

Jan. 12 1806

11932 transmitted, his Majesty would be pleased to authorize me to call the attention of Cabinet to this Subject, as I am not at this moment enabled to submit to his Majesty any statement of the Sentiments, having only presumed so far to inform myself of his Majesty's pleasure, as to guard against any prejudice resulting to his Majesty's views, from the mode of conducting the Retreat of the British Army on this view, I requested Lord Hawkebury when he went to Windsor on Saturday to endeavor to inform himself of the Kings Opinions on the Alternative, which I took the liberty of submitting for his Majesty's consideration in my note of the same being in order to avoid unnecessary delay, but not having concerned myself at liberty to bring this point under the deliberation of the Kings servants, I have not felt myself enabled to submit for the Kings sanction any Official Instructions to be forwarded to the Continent, which I should have done had his Majesty not permit me to offer, in reply to the Communications with which his Majesty has honored me

8a

Believe me Dear Sir
Yours very faithfully
Catherine

St Col Taylor

Private
Downing Street 12th Jan 9
Lord Cartercay

to Lt. Col. Taylor
Jan 13 1806

11933

London

Not Secret

My Dear Sir

on a point of such moment and importance to his Majesty's feelings as well as interests I am most anxious to guard against any possible misconception hereafter, and as upon looking over your two last notes, which it is not probable the King may have appeared before conference with my Colleagues ^{in this hypothesis} and from a knowledge of their sentiments, which I did not, I have thought it necessary to trouble you with an explanatory note; which I beg you will do me the favor to communicate to his Majesty, I am Dear Sir yours very truly

11931-2

C.

11

Lt. Col. Herbert Taylor to Lord Castlereagh

Private Copy 11934

Bundon January 14th 1806

My Dear Lord,

Immediately after I had had the honour of reading to His Majesty the letters which Your Lordship addressed to me yesterday on the subject of His Majesty's Electoral Dominion, the King took up his Pen and wrote the letter which is transmitted in the Box, observing that he would himself receive your letter which he has kept as well as the Originals & Copies of the Communications which has passed on the subject. I was not honour'd with any further command than to send the King's letter.

As signed

Castlereagh

The Right Honourable

Lord Viscount Castlereagh

Copy of a letter from Lord Taylor to Lord Castlereagh
January 14th 1806

H. H. to Hd. Castlehereagh

Copy 11935

Windsor Castle January 14th
1806

The King desired Lord Cornwall Taylor to state in a confidential letter, His Majesty's Sentiments as given on the fullest Consideration of the present Dilemma in which His and His Family's Interests in Germany are placed by the untoward Events that have arisen in Germany, and in consequence of which He has already sent Orders to Lord Munster, by no means to enter into any negotiation with Prussia, and that His Majesty secretly thinks that His Dominions being in the hands of an open Enemy is less dangerous than in those of a false friend. Therefore He by no means calls on His British Ministers for an Opinion on a Subject, which can alone be determined by what His Majesty feels He must

Copy
From the King to Lord Castlehereagh. January 14th Windsor Castle. 1806

was to himself and Family.

signed

George B.

Bp. of Lincoln (Toulene) to Lt. Col. Herbert Taylor

11936 -7

(Copy).

Putney Heath

Tuesday January 21st
1/2 past nine P.M.

Sir,

I was honored with your letter this morning and encouraged by the gracious manner in which His Majesty condescended to receive the particulars with which I troubled you last night; I take the liberty of communicating to you for His Majesty's Information, the situation of Mr. Pitt this evening. - The Physicians were here more than three hours, and saw Mr. Pitt at the beginning, middle and end of that time; - most truly concerned I am to say that they pronounced Mr. Pitt materially worse, and growing worse every hour; his debility has increased, as well as his Fever; his Tongue and Throat are worse; he is more restless, and there is

Lieut. Colonel Taylor
K K K

B

a greater degree of flatulency — upon the whole they think that there are now no reasonable hopes of Mr. Pitt's doing well, though they do not represent his recovery as impossible. —

I thought it my indispensable Duty to state these circumstances in Detail, that His Majesty might be acquainted with Mr. Pitt's real situation. — I flatter myself that I do not presume too much in the conviction I feel that this detail will give great anxiety and pain to His Majesty, and therefore if any favorable change should unexpectedly take place, I will not fail to give you immediate Notice of it. —

In any case, I will dispatch a Messenger to you to-morrow morning at Windsor, after the Physicians have given their opinion; they are to be here at Ten o'clock. —

I write under great Agitation which I trust His Majesty's goodness

Bp. of Lincoln (Touleue) to Lt. Col. Herbert Taylor

11937 goodness will pardon. I omitted to state that in the last Twenty four Hours Mr. Pitt has taken his usual quantity of Nourishment at least, and all the Medicines ordered, but without support or advantage, a blister is to be applied betwixt the Shoulders to Night. -

I have &c

(Signed) J. Lincoln

12a

Copy
Putney Heath 21 January 1806
12, Putney P. W.
The Bishop of Lincoln
to
Colonel Taylor

Bp. of Lincoln to Lt. Col. Herbert Taylor

Copy 11938

Pitney Heath, Wednesday

22^d January 1806

1/2 past 11 A.M.

Sir,

The Physicians have seen Mr. Pitt, and I am truly unhappy to repeat the Report which I have just received from them; The pulse are more feeble and more frequent; The general strength is less and upon the whole the disease is making progress, though there are no symptoms of immediate dissolution.

I take the liberty of adding for His Majesty's information, and the goodness I have already experienced from His Majesty induces me to hope that He will not be displeas'd, that I was with Mr. Pitt nearly an hour this morning; I thought it my duty to speak to Him upon Religious subjects, and I was beyond measure happy to find His mind in a state very

Lt Colonel Taylor

Copy

Pitney Heath 22^d January 1806
1/2 past 11 A.M.

The Bishop of Lincoln
To Lt Colonel Taylor

mark

mude to my satisfaction; He allowed me to pray with him; he expressed great Humility and Trust in the mercy of God; he was fully sensible of his situation and said that he died in peace and Charity with all mankind; I then mentioned his worldly Affairs; He attempted to write but was unable; He desired me to write down several particulars, which he signed, and declared them to be his last will and Testament.

If you should judge it improper to mention these circumstances to the King, I beg you to suppress them.
I fear that I have again to entreat his Majesty's Pardon for the manner in which I write.

I have &c.

(Signed) G. Lincoln.

Mr. Col. Herbert Taylor b Bp. of Lincoln,

11939. 40

(Copy)

Windsor January 22^d 1800

My Lord Bishop,

Although The King had been pleased this morning, to order me personally to convey to your Lordship His thanks for your very great attention in communicating to His Majesty the particulars of Mr. Pitt's situation, and to express to you the sensations of deep regret and Concern with which His Majesty had received the melancholy account which your letter of last night contained, I have since my return from Putney, been Honored with The Kings Commands particularly to thank your Lordship for introducing in your letter dated this morning the mention of what had passed between you and Mr. Pitt upon religious subjects. — In the distress

The Lord Bishop of Lincoln

with

with which His Majesty views the approaching loss of a Person for whom He feels so sincere a regard both from Public and Private Motives, His Majesty has derived some Relief and Consolation from what Your Lordship has mentioned in regard to the state of Mind in which you have found Mr.
Pitt, fully impressed as His Majesty has ever been with the Conviction of the Comfort which under the severest Calamities, and under Circumstances the most trying, is to be found in a true sense of Religion, and in that Trust in the Mercy of God which Mr. Pitt feels; And His Majesty was pleased to add that it was a Subject of no small Satisfaction to Him, that Your Lordship is now with Mr. Pitt, as He is well aware of the Comfort which He must receive from conversing with You, and as He has the fullest Confidence in Your

Mr. Col. Herbert Taylor to Bp. of Lincoln,

11940

Your Lordship's Endeavours to Continue to direct His Mind to those serious considerations which You have already brought before Him.

I sincerely wish it was in My power to do Justice to the feeling and affectionate manner in which The King expressed Himself this Morning and since: — Although His Majesty had not been sanguine in His hopes of Mr. Pitt's Recovery, since He was first made aware of His precarious Situation, His Majesty did not expect that the Progress of the Disorder would have been so rapid, and He was deeply affected, when Your Lordship's last Communications were made known to Him, although truly sensible of Your attention in not concealing from Him, Mr. Pitt's real Situation.

I have &c.
(Signed) H. Taylor.

14a

69/9

London 25 January 1806

Mr George Taylor

To

The Bishop of Lincoln

Copy

Putney Heath 22^d Jan'y 1706
10. P. M.

The Bishop of Lincoln

To

Colonel Taylor

11941

Putney Heath

22^d January 1706

10th Clock P. M.

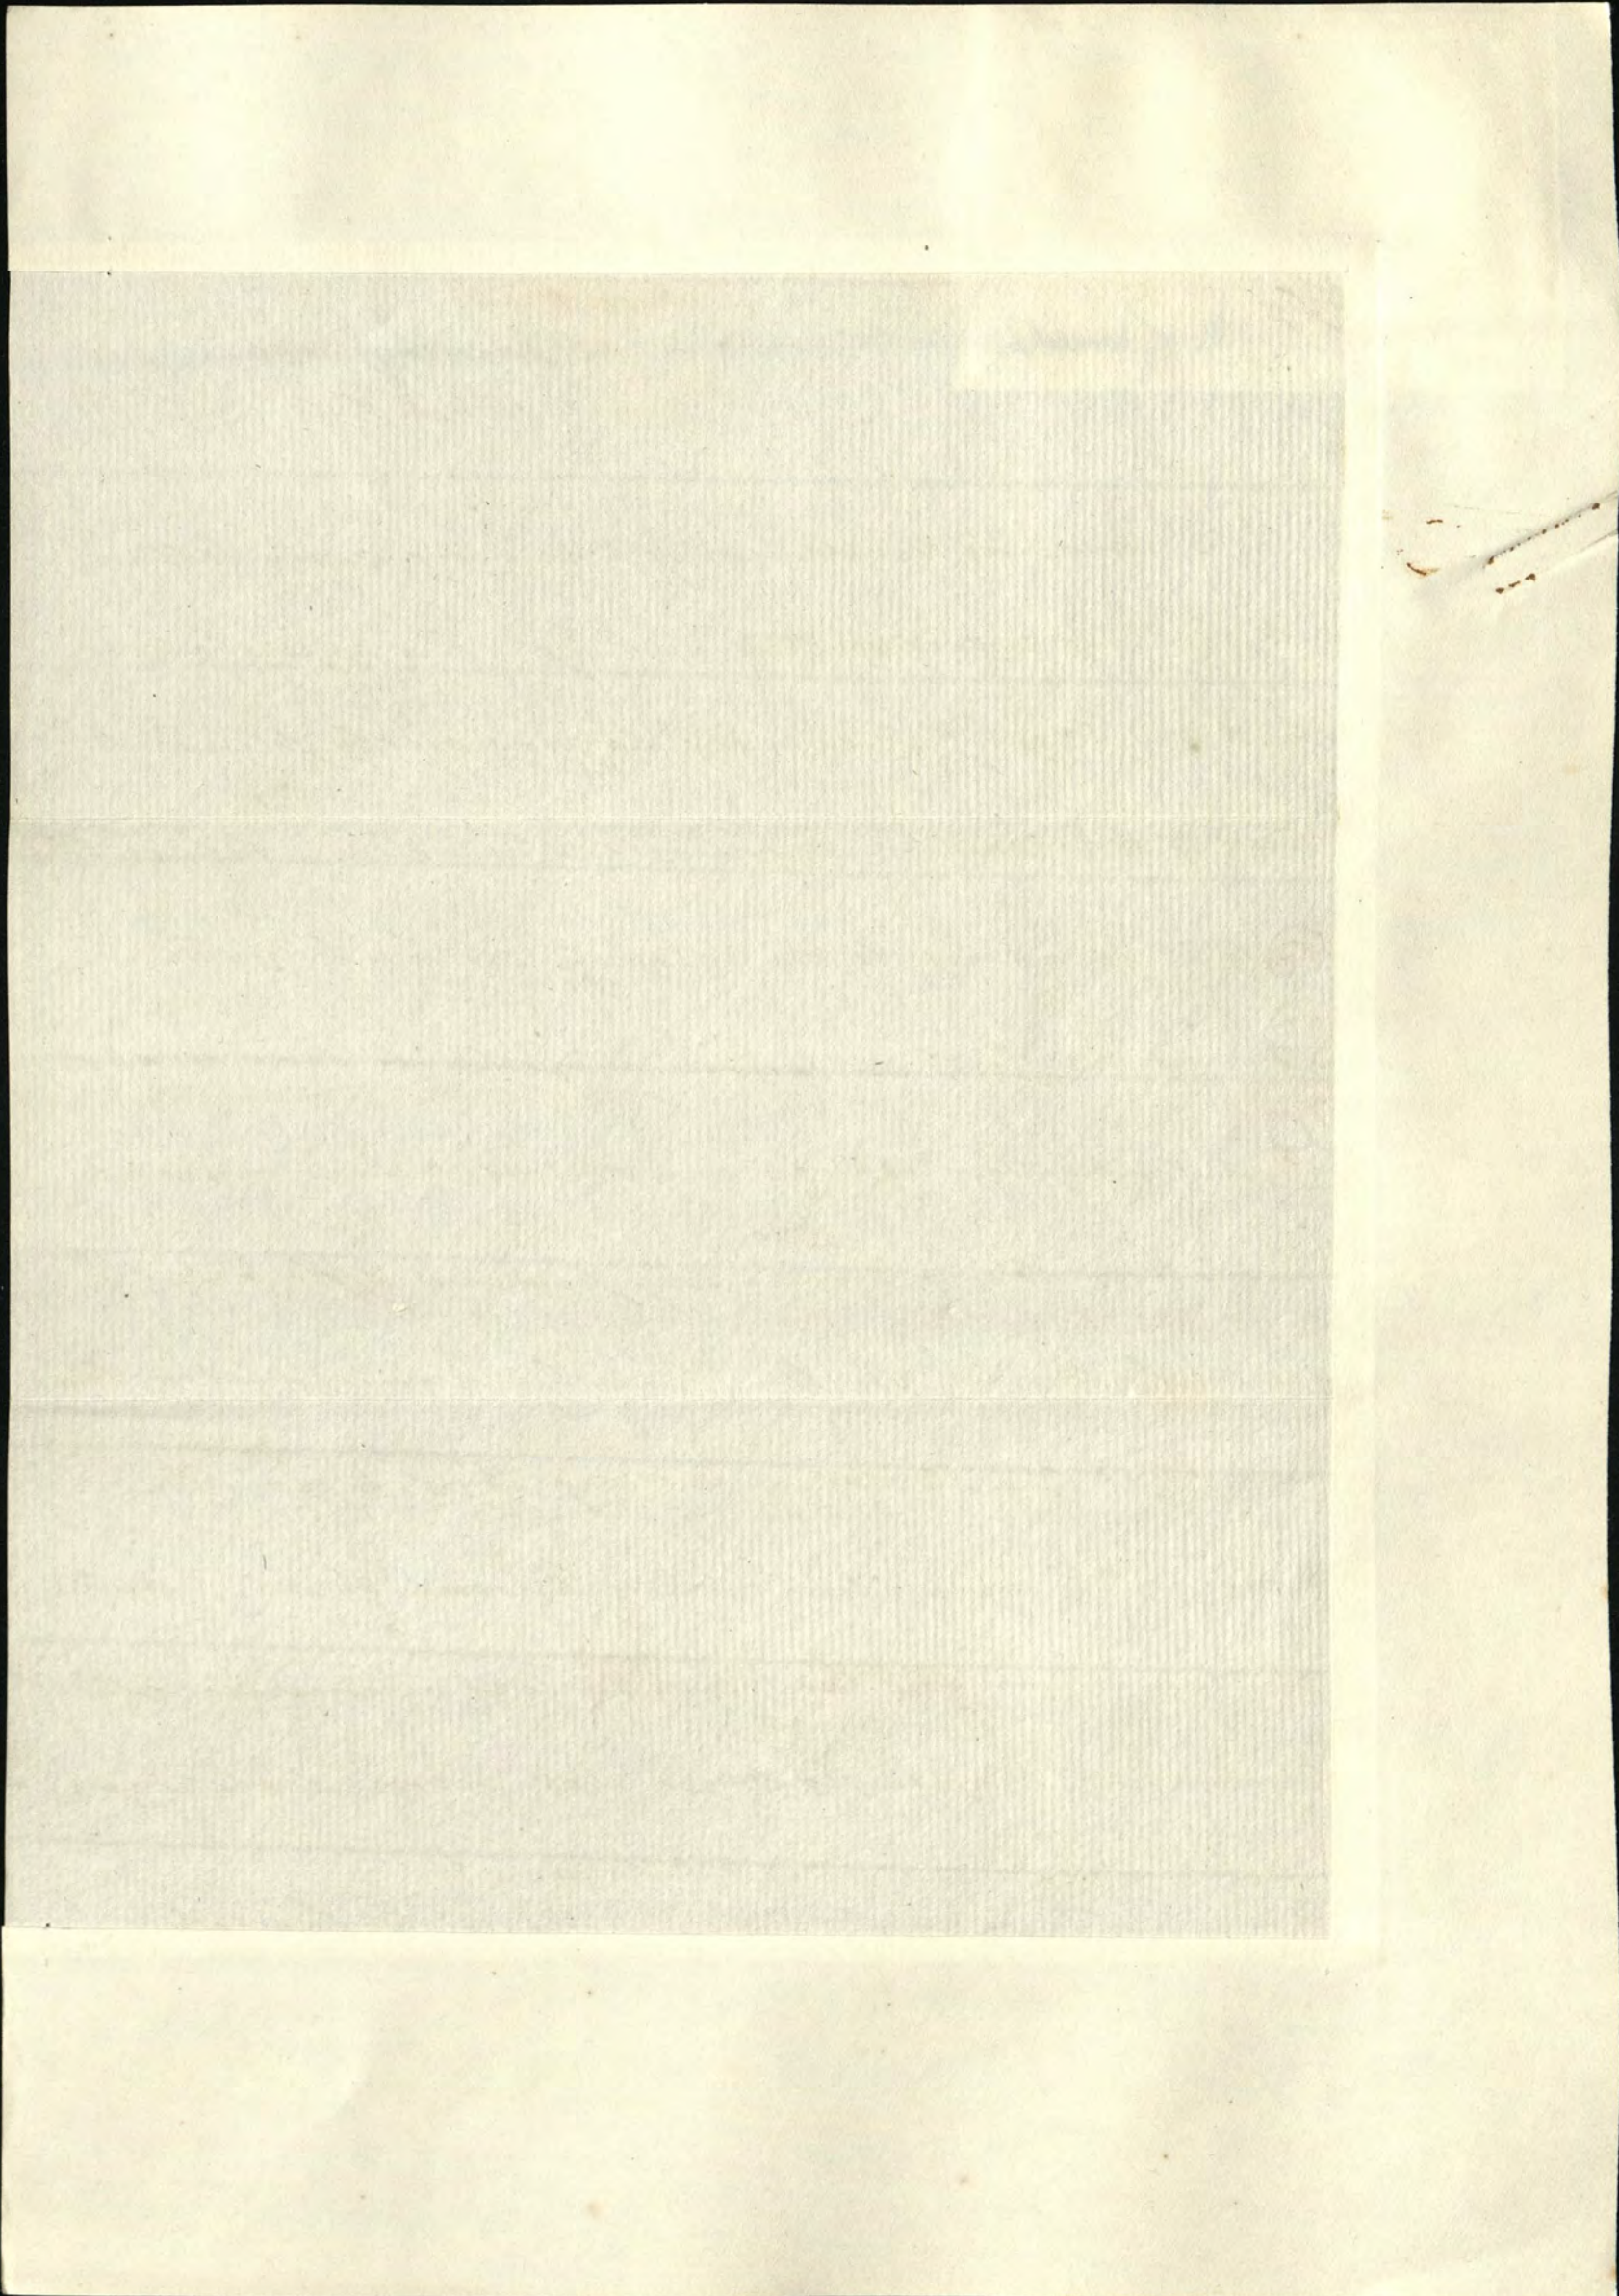

Sir,

I have had the Honor of receiving your letter written from Windsor this Evening. The approbation which His Majesty has been so graciously pleas'd to express of the Communications which I have taken the liberty of making to His Majesty through you respecting Mr Pitt's Situation and Feelings has made a deep Impression upon my mind, and is a great consolation to me under my present affliction. I have only to add, for His Majesty's Information, that since I had the Honor of writing to you in the morning, the symptoms have become worse, particularly within the last five hours and indicate approaching, though perhaps not immediate, Dissolution. —

Colonel Taylor

I have &c.

(Signed) G. Lincoln. —

Bp. of Lincoln to Lt. Col. Herbert Taylor

Jan. 23 1806

11942

Pitt's Death

Thursday Morn: 5 o'clock.

With inexpressible concern the Bishop of Lincoln informs Colonel Taylor, that Mr Pitt expired at half past four. -

Copy

Pitt's Death 23^d Jan^r 1806
5 A. M.

The Lord Bishop of Lincoln
to Lt. Colonel Taylor. -

Lt. Col. H. Taylor to Bp. of Lincoln

Copy 11943

Windsor 23^d January 1706

My Lord Bishop,

Unwilling as I feel to intrude upon your Lordship by any communication in your present severe affliction, I consider it my duty to acquaint you that I have conveyed to the King's knowledge the very melancholy event which took place this morning. Every Individual who is sincerely attached to His King and His Country must enter deeply into His Majesty's feelings upon this distressing occasion and those are very acute.
His Majesty has again charged me to thank your Lordship for your attention. -

I have &c.

The Lord Bishop of Lincoln. -

(Signed) H. Taylor

Copy

Windsor 23^d January 1706

Lt Colonel Taylor

to

The Bishop of Lincoln.

Cabinet Minutes

Jan. 24 1806

11944 - 5

24 Jan 1806

Present

The Lord Chancellor
The Lord President
The Lord Privy Seal
Duke of Montrose
Lord Castlereagh
Lord Mulgrave
Lord Barham
Lord Hawkesbury

Your Majesty's Confidential Servants have in obedience to Your Majesty's Commands most seriously considered the two following Questions

First Whether it is practicable to form an Administration out of the Persons who composed the Administration under Mr Pitt which would be capable of Carrying on Your Majesty's Government under under the present Circumstances with Advantage to the Country

Secondly Whether if an Arrangement to this Effect is judged practicable There appears to be any considerable Addition of strength within the Reach of your Majesty's Servants which would enable them to suggest to your Majesty the means of constituting such an Administration

Your Majesty's Servants having fully discussed and maturely weighed all the Considerations which bear

Cabinet Minutes

Jan. 24 1806

11945 on these important Questions humbly represent to your Majesty that they feel it to be their Duty to answer both these Questions in the negative

Lord Howesbury has communicated the above Minute to the Duke of Portland and Earl of Chatham who have desired to express their Concurrence in it

18a

7

Manuscript of Robert 27 & January 1885

Duke of Portland

Jan. 24 1806

11946 - 7

The copy which your Majesty has retained by the Secretaries, does not seem to have passed through the hands of the Duke of Portland to offer him to obtain from your Majesty your Majesty's permission to offer to your Majesty a list of his name & most important concerns.

From the moment at which the Duke of Portland became first apprized of the precarious state of Mr Pitt's health, he could not but turn his mind to the effects which it might produce in a Political point of view should the Termination of Mr Pitt's life be such as to leave behind the misfortune to experience should it have pleased the Almighty Providence to have prolonged it to the end of the impending session with alternate fears & hopes of His Recovery. In the latter case

D

Case the Duke of Portland cannot but acknowledge to your Majesty that ^{as far as he is capable of judging} the Difficulties which these Persons, to whom your Majesty is pleased to entrust the conduct of your Affairs in the two Houses of Parliament, will have especially in the House of Commons would have had to struggle with ^{would have been} were far from inconsiderable, but with the Weight & Authority of your Majesty's Support this Success was not an Event to be despised or disregarded of, & the D. of Portland is thoroughly persuaded that your Majesty would not have found one of them disposed to shrink ^{from} his Post. But the Calamity with which we have just been visited most materially alters the State of things, & calls upon the D. of Portland to testify his Attachment to your Majesty & his gratefull Remembrance of the Conditions ~~on which~~ your Majesty was pleased to assent to your Command to him to retain the flattering distinction of being ^{including the} ~~numbered~~ ^{in the} List of your Majesty's Confidential Secretaries, by representing to your Majesty that

Duke of Portland

Jan. 24 1806

11947 is capable of judging trajesty that the ad to extract the more especially more far from the support this

D. of Portland
one of them
we have just been on the D. of Portland all Remembrance any to your instructed in to your Majesty they

the inutility (which in his conscience he believes it to be the opinion of all his Colleague as well as his own) ^{which is fit to} of your Majesty's present attempts to carry your Majesty's business through the House of Commons, or to resist the attacks of Opposition with any certainty of success. As a man of duty and integrity I should to undertake the painful task of submitting his sentiments on this momentous crisis to your Majesty; He can not forbear warily with the same feelings from submitting to your Majesty's better judgement the necessity of your Majesty having recourse to the influence & abilities of some at least of those persons who compose the present Opposition in order to enable your Majesty to form an efficient Administration capable of conducting your Majesty's affairs. The D. of P. fears that such a step is too obvious to require any argument to excuse it & he will therefore only submit to your Majesty's consideration whether the advantages which may arise from its being resorted to at all as it can be well to call your Majesty's attention may not outweigh any which ~~it can be resorted to~~ it is expected to be derived

19a

desires from any delay which can be obtained in such a manner with respect

The Duke of Coburg is fully sensible of his happy occasion for all the kindness which he has ever experienced from Your Majesty & desires Your Majesty to pardon the freedom with which he has permitted to express his sentiments & opinion to Your Majesty. But as he wishes to believe that his words may possibly be repeated for his interest in a conversation some of his words to your Majesty with a most anxious solicitude to observe as far as they may be possible any inaccuracies which may be recorded, he writes with confidence to his Majesty that he is permitted to express himself as far as possible to reach himself among the most absolute of your Majesty's faithful servants & subjects.

Buckingham Palace
Friday 24 January 1806. 2 p.m.

January 25th 1806
Lord Mulgrave

11948

Downing Street
Jan^y 25th 1806 -

Lord Mulgrave begs leave to submit to your Majesty's gracious Consideration the case of Mr Ward Under Secretary of State in the foreign Department. This Gentleman at the time of accepting that office relinquished an Annual Profit from his Profession ^{at the Bar} of from one thousand & twelve hundred Pounds a Year; He had also a Promise from Mr Pitt, and the approbation of the Lord Chancellor, of a Recommendation by your Majesty, for the Situation then vacant of a Welsh Judge under these circumstances and in consideration of Mr Ward's diligent and able Discharge of the duties of his office, Lord Melgrave begs humbly to recommend to your Majesty, that an Allowance of £1000 per Annum to Mrs Ward, (Wife of the said Mr Ward) should be assigned on the Establishment of the Department for Foreign Affairs (under the usual Restrictions) in the event of Mr Ward quitting the Situation he at present holds.

Lord Castlescaugh
25th January 1008

11949

Dorset Street
25th Jan 1008

Lord Castlescaugh has the honour hereby to recommend to your Majesty the Rt Hon^{ble} William Dundas to succeed Lt Gen^l Hunter deceased in

The Hon^{ble} Government of Upper Canada

11950

Comparative State of Numbers of 9 Battalions of the King's German Legion from the weekly State of the 26th Jan'y 1800 and

The Embarkation Returns. —	26 th Jan'y 1800	Embarked	Gained	Lost
1 st B ⁿ Infy B ⁿ —	962	793	—	167
2 ^d do —	1141	853	—	288
3 ^d B ⁿ do —	810	812	2	—
4 th do —	907	935	28	—
5 th do —	821	865	44	—
6 th do —	923	900	—	23
7 th do —	936	936	—	—
8 th do —	937	996	59	—
9 th do —	780	654	—	54
Total	8143	7744	133	332

Differences — 399.

Comparative State of Numbers of the German Legion. 26th Jan'y & Embarkation Returns —

ld. Castlereagh

Jan. 26 1806

11951 - 2

St James's Square

26th Jan. 1806

Lord Castlereagh has the honor to submit for your Majesty's Royal Signature, a warrant granting the Resurrection of the Office of Secretary in the Island of Barbadoes, now held by Mr Percy Wyndham, to Mr James, appears to be part of

London

It was part London's intention had he continued to hold the Seals of the Colonial Department, to have solicited this favor from some Prayer, and Lord Castlereagh has by Lopes, that the strongest Lord London

hd. Castlereagh

Jan. 26 1806

11952 feels on his part, with ~~reason~~ induce your Majesty, to permit Lord Castlereagh earnestly to recommend it, to your Majesty's gracious approbation

1853

230

[Faint, mostly illegible cursive handwriting on lined paper. The text is mirrored across the page, suggesting bleed-through from the reverse side. A vertical line is drawn on the right side of the page, separating a column of text from the rest of the page.]

[Vertical handwritten text on the right side of the page, possibly a signature or date.]

hd. Castlereagh

Monday Jan. 27 1806

11953 - 4

St James's Square

Monday Even: 9 P.M.

27 Jan 1806

Lord Castlereagh has the honor humbly to request your Majesty, that the House of Commons divided this evening about 8 o'clock on the Motion (the Words of which follow in the precedent in the Case of the late Earl of Chatham) when the Numbers were as follows,

Pages 259 Votes 09 Majority 170

The members in the course of the debate were in favor of the Motion - Mr Lascelles - Lord Titchfield Mr Hewhens Browne, Sir Robert Burton
Lord Temple
Lord Loftus, General Farleton - Mr
Richard Ryder, Mr Rose - Lord Castlereagh
Mr Wilberforce & Sir R. Williams - Against the Motion Lord Folkestone

hd. Castlereagh

Monday Jan. 9. 27 1806

11954

M^r Smith of Norwich, M^r Wyndham
M^r George Ponsonby and M^r Fox

M^r Cartwright Member for Northamptonshire gave notice of a Motion for Monday next, for the payment of M^r Pitts Debts your Majesty's Servants propose to lay the Petition tomorrow before both Houses, and to propose

170 course

war of Lord Tickford

West Buxton

Leton - M^r

Lord Castlereagh

Chairs -

Chestone

240

A vote of Thanks to your Majesty's Officers & Seamen who achieved the late Naval Victories

22nd 1744

Wm Pitt
Jan 30th 1746

Ld. Castlereagh^w

Jan. 29 1806

11955-6

Downing Street
29th Jan 1806

The government of the Island of Domenica having become vacant by the resignation of Sir George Prevost appointed to the Gov^{mt} of Port Antonio Lord Castlereagh begs leave humbly to recommend the Hon^{ble} Captain Henry

Blackwood late of the Porpoise,
to your Majesty's gracious consideration for that appointment

Captain Blackwood's Character and Services in the Navy, & particularly the share he had in the late glorious victory off Cape Trafalgar, and the trials which attended him in your Majesty's

Ld. Castlereagh^w

Jan. 29 1806

11956

Judgment to this Mark of your

Royal Favor

gates,
under character and protection the glorious Castlereagh
highly

26a

26000

David M. M. M. M.
19th January 1886.

ld. Grenville

Jan. 29 1806

11957-8

Carmelford House

Jan^y 29. 1806.

11. P.M.

Lord Grenville is extremely con-cerned to find himself under the necessity of trespassing upon the indul-gence of Your Majesty, by humbly soliciting leave to defer till Friday, at

at such hour as Your Majesty may be graciously pleased to appoint, The honour of waiting upon Your Majesty with the paper which he has received Your Majesty's commands to prepare. He trusts that Your Majesty

Ld. Grenville

Jan. 29 1806

11958 ty may point, on your it be commands hour

 Majesty

Majesty will have the goodness to believe that no exertions have been wanting on his part to execute those commands with the utmost possible diligence, and in such manner as may be most satisfactory to Your Majesty.

26a

Lord Grenville
January 29th 1786

A. H. to Lord Grenville

Copy 11959

Windsor Castle 30th January 1786

The King is sensible of Lord Grenville's usual Punctuality in giving him notice that he shall not be ready to attend him this day with the Papers which he was to have prepared, and his Regret in consequence fixes the hour of two for seeing Lord Grenville Tomorrow

Signed

George R.

To Lord Grenville
30th January 1786.

Ld. Castlereaghth

Jan. 30 1806

11960-1

Downing Street
30th Jan 3 1806

Ld. Castlereagh in justice to the able and laborious services of Mr Coche, feels it his duty humbly to submit them to your Majesty's gracious consideration, as deserving of reasonable provision upon his retiring from the Office of Under Secretary of State

M^r Cooke was introduced into the Colonial Department by Lord Camden, and has without the aid of a Colleague transacted both the Military and Colonial business of the Office, highly to the satisfaction of those entrusted by your Majesty with the Secrets of

Ld. Castlereaghth

Jan. 30 1806

11961

This Department, upon which grounds
Lord Castlereagh begs leave humbly
to submit for your Majesty's approbation, that a Pension of Five Hundred Pounds a year, payable out of the Fee Fund of the Office, be granted to Mr Cooke on his retiring, ~~and determine~~ in case Mr Cooke shall hereafter accept any Office of equal or superior value under your Majesty

Office devised by without transacted Colonial
to warranted Seals of

28a

Lord Wellington
30 & January 1805

Ld.
GrenvilleJan. 31
1806

In humble obedience to Your Majesty's commands Lord Grenville has communicated with such Persons as appeared to him best able to assist in framing such a plan for an Administration as might, under the present difficult and arduous circumstances, be most likely to carry on the Government with advantage to Your Majesty's Service.

It is with their concurrence that he has now the honour humbly to submit to Your Majesty that the Cabinet Council might, if Your Majesty were pleased to approve of it, consist of the following persons holding the respective Offices under mentioned, viz^t.

Lord Chancellor - Mr. Baskine.

Lord President Earl Fitzwilliam

Lord Privy Seal Viscount Sidmouth

Secretary of State foreign department, Mr. Fox

----- Home department, Earl Spencer

----- War department, Mr. Windham,

First Lord of the Admiralty Mr. Grey

Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Earl of Moira

Chancellor of the Exchequer, Lord Henry Petty,

First Lord of the Treasury, Lord Grenville, and to this Cabinet, if Your Majesty approved of it, it would also be proposed that Lord Ellenborough, Your Majesty's Chief Justice of the King's Bench, should be added.

No new arrangement is here submitted to Your Majesty respecting the important office of Master General of the Ordnance, untill it shall be known whether the Earl of Moira, shall be willing to undertake the situation of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, which which proposition Lord Moira's absence from London has obliged Lord Grenville to submit to Your Majesty without His Lordship's knowledge.

It would be further humbly proposed, that Lord Minto should be President of the Board of Control for India,

Lord Auckland President of the Committee of Your Majesty's Privy Council for the affairs of Trade

General Fitz Patrick, Secretary at War,

and Mr. Pigott, & Mr. Romilly, Attorneys and Solicitor General.

Lord Grenville has thus presumed to lay before Your Majesty the humble opinion of the Persons with whom he has communicated as to the formation of a Cabinet, and the disposal of the principal Offices of Business, agreeably to what he understood to be Your Majesty's

Jan. 31. '06

29^a

Majesty's pleasure. The arrangements for the Boards & other offices of less importance, would be formed on a similar principle of comprehending as much as possible those persons of different descriptions who might appear likely to be most useful to the carrying on Your Majesty's Service.

Lord Grenville cannot submit these ideas to Your Majesty on the part of the persons above named, or, still more, on his own part, without expressing at the same time the deepest sense of the difficulties of the different situations which it is here proposed that they should respectively undertake, together with the humble assurance of their earnest desire to manifest to the utmost of their power by every part of their conduct, their zeal for the Honour & interests of

Your

Your Majesty's Government, and their Respect, Duty, & Attachment to Your Majesty's Royal Person.

The arrangements to be made respecting the Defence of the Country, and the Administration of the Military Service in all its extensive & various Branches, must of necessity form the first Object of Attention to any Persons whom Your Majesty may be pleased under the present circumstances of Public Affairs to call to Your Service. And in the present moment the Persons above named only venture to express the Hope that, should Your Majesty be pleased to call them to Your Confidential Councils they may be honoured with Your Majesty's gracious Confidence on the whole of these important matters
without

without appearing to transgress the limits of their Duty, and that Your Majesty will be favourably disposed to the discussion of such measures respecting it, as on a full examination of the Subject, aided by those means of information which official situations can alone furnish to them, shall appear to them advantageous or necessary to be submitted for Your Majesty's consideration.

It would at all times be the earnest wish of the Persons above named to avoid to the utmost of their Power submitting to Your Majesty proposals for extending the Peerage. But in the first formation of a new Government they trust that Your Majesty would not be disinclined to honour with that dignity a very few Persons, not exceeding four or five at the utmost,

all

11965

all of them of such rank & station in life as seem to point them out as unexceptionable Objts for your Majesty's favour in that respect.

Jan^y 31st 1806. —

290

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

Ld. Castlereagh

Jan. 31 1806

11966-7

Downing Street
31st Jan 1806

Ld. Castlereagh has the honor, pursuant to the humble desire of your Majesty's Confidential Servants, to lay before your Majesty for your Royal Signature

the accompanying messages to the House of Commons, accordingly them to enable your Majesty to grant the following annuities viz to Lady Viscountess Nelson £2000 per annum during her Ladyship's life — To Lord Collingwood and the two next heirs to the title £2000 a year and to Sir Richard Jackson

Ld. Castlereagh

Jan. 31 1806

11967 an annuity of £1000 for his life es to account by Mages

annuities £2000 per he — the two £2000 not Shaker

300

Lord Southwell
31st January