Lord Grenville
December 1st 1806

12525

Downing Street Dec. 1. 1806.

G. P. M.

Lord Grenville has the honour humbly to acquaint Your Majesty that he has laid before the Cabinet Your Majesty's comments of this date with the inclosed statement received by Your Majesty from Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Devonshire: and that Your Majesty's servants will immediately immediately consider of the proper form of an application to Parliament on this subject, not entertaining the smallest doubt that Your Majesty's Parliament and People will be anxious to embrace this and every other opportunity of testifying their dutiful & grateful attachment to Your Majesty's Royal Person and Family.

To Lord <sup>King</sup> Grenville
December 1st 1766

12526

Windsor Castle December 1st 1766

The King would not consider himself justified in delaying to acquaint Lord Grenville that he has received from the Duchess of Brunswick a letter dated at Augustenburg November 15th in which she states that the <sup>late</sup> melancholy Events have produced the entire Ruin of her Finances, that one half of her Fortune was placed at Brunswick, that what she received as Electoral Princess and Money which she had placed in the Ducal Treasury <sup>are</sup> in the hands of the French. In this situation the Duchess has appealed to the King for support and his Majesty feels bound by every Tie of Duty and Affection to prove to her and to the world that she has not appealed to them in vain. He therefore trusts that his Ministers will consider of the necessary Steps to enable him to make an adequate Provision for the Duchess of Brunswick and her Family and he has too much Confidence in the proved Attachment of his People, not to feel assured that the same feeling <sup>is</sup> will upon this Occasion be cheerfully extended to his Sister.

The King also sends to Lord Grenville the Copy of a Statement which has accompanied the Duchess of Brunswick's Letter.

Earl Spencer has the Honour to lay before your Majesty a Letter he has received from Mr Elliot the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, together with several Papers alluded to therein.

Earl Spencer has with that forbearance to trouble your Majesty with any of the numerous Depositions and Informations lately transmitted from that Country relative to the Disturbances which have for some time past prevailed in the Western Parts of Ireland, & which consist in nocturnal Assemblies of the lower

Copies of the People, who determine themselves Shroveton, for the purpose in general of impeding or resisting the Collection of Tythes, and also in many Instances of enforcing on the Catholick Priests a Reduction in their Dues; because though these Reports are unquestionably of a Nature which requires the utmost Vigilance & Attention on the Part of your Majesty's Servants in both Countries, the Information conveyed by the Papers in question was in general so vague, as not to seem worth giving you Majesty the Trouble of reading them: Unfortunatly however the Contents of

I have now laid before your Majesty appears of a more distinct, as well as of a more alarming description, as they give strong grounds of suspicion that there exists a secret Correspondence with the Enemy, of which there had hitherto been no trace in the Informations received respecting the Disturbances in the Western Counties. Earl Spencer earnestly trusts and confidently hopes that by a proper Execution of the Powers invested by Law in the Government of the Country, these Proceedings may be successfully checked; for which purpose it will in the first Instance be absolutely necessary to increase

The regular military Force in Ireland as much as may be consistent with the other demands of your Majesty's Service, a Measure upon which he has already had several Communications with His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

The King has learnt with much concern from Earl Spencer's letter and the accompanying Papers that the Disturbances and the appearance of Disaffection in Ireland have become so serious. His M. is however by no means surprized that it should have been discovered that there exists a Correspondence with the Enemy, as this has invariably been the case upon former similar Occasions, and was always suspected by His Majesty's Government upon these Occasions, as Earl Spencer much knows from Personal Experience. The King is aware of the necessity of providing for the Security of Ireland by Reinforcements from hence, but from the extent of the late Demands upon it's actual Resources, His Majesty fears that the Force, now in this Country, will hardly prove adequate to the critical Circumstances under which it is placed.

Journey L. G. of 11. 1806

Lord Howick has the honor of informing your Majesty that Mr. Burrell arrived this morning with the accompanying dispatches from Mr. Adair. Mr. Burrell left Vienna on 12th of November & came through Poland.
He was at the Head Quarters of the Russian Army under General Benigsen on the 20th. The position of the different armies was at that time as follows. General Benignus with 60,000 Men at Balthowth, his advanced Guard consisting of 2000 Men, 2000 of which were Poles, at Warsaw. The King of Prussia at Grodno with 20,000 Men. A new levy of 5000 Men at Königsberg, but without arms. The Garrison of Danzig consisted of 12,000 Men, & that of Alberga of 4000.
