

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I should most willingly have consulted Your private Convenience by allowing You a longer Recess from Business, if I had not thought that some very important Parts of the Publick Service required the immediate Attention of Parliament.

It is impossible that I can look with Indifference upon whatever concerns either the Commerce and Revenue of the Kingdom at large, or the private Rights and Interests of considerable Numbers among My People, neither can I be insensible how materially every one of these great Objects must be interested in the maintenance of the Credit and Prosperity of the East India Company. When therefore I received Information of the Difficulties in which that Company appear to be involved, I determined to give You an early Opportunity, of informing Yourselves fully of the true State of their Affairs; and of making such Provisions for the common Benefit and Security of all the various Interests concerned, as You shall find best adapted to the Exigencies of the Case.

I have the Satisfaction to acquaint You that there is reason to hope that the War which has so long unhappily prevailed in one Part of Europe, is now drawing to a Conclusion; and although there was no probability of Our being involved therein, yet the discontinuance of those Troubles will afford a fairer Prospect of the duration of Peace, which I trust the Alterations that have happened in Europe will not in their Consequences affect.

I continue to receive from Foreign Powers the strongest Assurances of their pacifick Dispositions towards this Country; and it shall be My constant Endeavour to preserve the general Tranquility, as far as is consistent with the Honour of My Crown, and the Interests of My People.

Gentlemen

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

It gives Me much Satisfaction that the continuance of Peace has enabled Me to proceed in the reduction of the establishment of My Naval Forces; but You will, I am confident, agree with Me, that a considerable Strength at Sea must be ever necessary for preserving the Reputation and Power of My Kingdoms.

The proper Estimates for the ensuing Year shall be laid before You, and whatever Supplies You may grant, shall, on My Part, be managed with the strictest Oeconomy, and applied with the utmost Fidelity.

My Lords

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I cannot but feel the most real Concern that the Produce of the late Harvest has not given Us the Relief which We had hoped for in respect to the deariness of Corn. As far as human Wisdom can provide for alleviating the Distresses of the Poor, I am persuaded Your Attention will not be wanting, and You cannot gratify Me more than by calling upon Me for My Concurrence, in whatever may contribute to the true Welfare and Happiness of all My People.
