Madam

16037
If I had been at home when You was so obliging as to send to Me the account of the sentiments of part of my Irish Subjects, You should not have been so long without receiving my thanks for this mark of Attention. I cannot help seizing this opportunity of expressing how much I am satisfied with the sentiments and address of my Cousin Prince Frederick of Hesse, who seems thoroughly sensible of the great kindness You have always shewn him. I desire You will at all times look upon me as

New Oct 3<sup>d</sup> 1775.

Madam
Your most Affectionate Nephew
George J.

1744

My dear Madam
I have the honor to receive your kind letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear that you are well. I am at present in the country and shall be home in a few days. I shall be glad to hear from you again.

Madam

Your affectionate son

George
