

Ed. Bruce
Seamore Place May 27th 1776.

16065

Sirs

I am sorry to find that your Majesty's Conversation with the Bishop of Chester did not end as you hoped for his sake.

I am to be with the Bishop of Litchfield this Morning soon after Nine, & shall be most happy if I can by that or any other Step, contribute towards your Majesty's Comfort, & Satisfaction.

I am,

Sirs,

With the greatest Respect & Attachment,

Your Majesty's

Most Dutiful Subject

Bruce

Seamore Place
May 27. 1776.

