

Draft to the D. of Montagu
Lords House June 5. 1688.

Dup. of 16088

16090

My Dear Lord Agreeable to the offer I made You Yesterday, I transmit a Copy of the Letter I sent through Your Channel yesterday to the Earl of Ribesbury, every expression of which, contain the exact dictates of my heart.

I trust You have directed Lieut. Col. Hotham to attend at St. James's, that he may appear with his Principal. I have sent directions to the Lord President that You may be sworn of the Privy Council.

As I was going to seal this up, I received Your note for which mark of Attention, I sincerely thank You Lords House

June 5. 1688.
