

Copy
Answer to the D. of Gloucester
New July 23^d 1779.

16169

New July 23. 1779.

Dear Brother, I thank You for Your Attention, in communicating unto me, the Copy of the letter from a French General; had You not mentioned Your certainty of its authenticity, I should have thought it so, from the Arrogance and impertinence of the style. I shall ever remain

Dear Brother
Your very Affectionate brother

J. P.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher.]