August 1762.

This morning, 12th / at half an hour past 7, Her Queen was happily delivered of a Prince. Her Royal Highness, the Princess Dowager of Wales, several Lords of His Majesty's most honourable Privy Council, and the Ladies of Her Majesty's Bedchamber, being present.

The great and important news was immediately made known to the town, by the firing of the Tower guns; and the Privy Council being assembled as soon as possible, thereupon, it was ordered

That a form of Thanksgiving, for the Queen's safe delivery of a Prince, should be prepared by His Grace, the Arch-Bishop of Canterbury, to be used within the bills of mortality on Sunday next, and throughout the King's dominions the Sunday, after the respective Ministers shall receive the same. It was likewise ordered, that in every part of the public service, where the Royal Family is appointed to be particularly prayed for, the following form shall be observed: "Our gracious Queen Charlotte, His Royal Highness
