

Mr Bruges
24th July 1703

16409

Sire

16408

I have been honoured on Monday two o'clock with your Majesty's gracious commands, have wrote a Copy for each of H. R. H. Prince Edward, Preceptor, have delivered them & hope that by a punctual obedience to your Majesty's royal pleasure, which you have condescended so fully to express, your gracious intentions will have their entire effects.

I have the honor to be with sentiments of the most unbounded respect,

Your Majesty's

Most humble most devoted & most faithful Subject,

J Bruges

New Tuesday Evening
29th July 1703

[Faint, illegible handwritten text in cursive script, possibly a letter or document fragment.]