Bath

Sir

Encourag'd by your Majesty's great indulgence to me, & commands to make my application immediately to your Majesty respecting all those who were about Prince William, tho' I feel the delicacy of pointing out any particular reward for one of his attendants, knowing your Majesty's intentions of rewarding him, I venture to enclose a letter I have this day receiv'd from the Rev. Mr. G. Waddington depending upon your Majesty's goodness if I have exceeded your intentions.

Your Majesty's very Faithfull and very Obedient
Dutyfull. servant
Thos. Dwyer
