

Note from
The King

Thurs Nov: 5: 1786

$\frac{m}{8}$ post 8 AM

16539

Thurs Nov. 5. 1786.

$\frac{m}{8}$ post 8 AM.

I have received from Lord Sydney the Report of D^r. Warren and M^r. Hunter on examining the body of the late Prince Amelia. Thinking the Attendance of the Funeral might be disagreeable to Lady Sydney
I have taken care that a sufficient number of ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~company~~ can be collected without calling upon Her.

By a note from ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~Secretary~~ ^{the} ~~Secretary~~ I find Ld. J. Gordon is still ~~and~~ ^{and} of fire; but his having given notice of his intentions for tomorrow night will not only put the Civil Magistrates on their guard, but should any outrage be committed he has accused himself
the Author and must be punished.

J. B.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text in cursive script, possibly a letter or document fragment.]