

Wm. Pitt

May 12 1787

16592 -3

In Obedience to your Majesty's Orders
Mr Pitt has communicated the said Paper from the Prince of Wales to such of your Majesty's Confidential Servants, as He had an Opportunity to consult with, and has the honor to submit it to your Majesty as their Opinion that, altho many articles of past Expence certainly appear excessive, yet the Explanation now given may be considered as sufficient to enable Your Majesty to apply to Parliament, if the Prince previously forms such a Plan as may be deemed a reasonable Security against excess in future.

Wm. Pitt

May 12 1787

16593

On this I see the accompanying Draft of a Memorial to His Royal Highness is humbly submitted to your Majesty's Consideration, in which it has been thought necessary to repeat your Majesty's Opinion that His Royal Highness's present Income is sufficient, but it should be supposed that your Majesty acquiesced in the alledged

Impropriety of His Royal Highness's residing his Establishment.

Downing Street.

Saturday May 12. 1787. 40th part 2nd Vol.

Mr Pitt.

May 12. 1787