

Wm. Pitt

May 15 1787

16594 - 5

Mr Pitt has delayed till now troubling your Majesty further in the constant expecta-tion of having to transmit an answer from His Royal Highness, The Prince of Wales, which His Royal Highness, when Mr Pitt waited upon him on Monday with your Majesty's message, expressed an intention

Wm. S.

of sending that evening . . . Mr J. H. has just now received from Mr Lyke and the other Commissioners the Papers and Determinates which he has the honor to transmit, and which he thinks it his duty instantly to convey to your Majesty

w a v p p v

Wm. Pitt

May 15 1787

16595

without waiting to accompany them with any observations. If your Majesty should think any step necessary in this Business previous to the time of Mr Pitt's paying his duty to your Majesty at St James tomorrow, Mr Pitt humbly hopes to be

For Embower

Mr Pitt.
May 15. 1787.

Honoured with your Majesty's command for that purpose.

Towning Street.

Tuesday May 15th 1787. 50th part of 8th M.