

AA

P. J. Walsh to the Lord Chamberlain
Westminster House Aug^r 22. 1804

Enclosure

16757

The excessive expectation into which the near approach of an Interview with His Majesty under all the circumstances which have recently come to His knowledge has thrown the Prince, has produced a degree of indisposition which renders it impossible for Him, to present Himself before Him this day; The Prince intreats the Lord Chamberlain to state this circumstance to His Majesty.

Just to the same.

Aug^r. 22^d.

1804.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]