My Dearest Sister,

With the deepest concern I received this morning by a Despatch from Hanbury the melancholy Intelligence of the poor Duke of Brunswick's Death, and I cannot suffer a day to pass without expressing to you how sincerely I participate in your feelings from this additional cause of affliction after the many severe Trials with which you have been visited.
You are, I trust, my Dearest Sister too well convinced of my warm Affection for you, to require any Assurance of my earnest Wish to contribute by every means in my Power to your Consolation and Comfort, and I must request that you will not scruple to acquaint me in what Manner I can be of Use to you, as I shall feel anxious upon this and every Occasion to meet your wishes.

I am ever &c.

Signed
George R.
