The King has not heard without great concern the Circumstances relating to the Duke of Sussex's Affairs, of which the Duke of Cornwall's letter has conveyed to him the first Intimation. His Majesty is sensible of the Considerate Manner in which the Duke of Cornwall has entered into so unpleasant a Matter and of his Readiness to suggest the only Arrangement which, in His Majesty's Opinion, can prevent so long a Case, and of which He approves.

Signed

George.
