Ld. Suffolk to the King

Lord Suffolk has the Honour to inform Your Majesty that in consequence of the Intelligence received a few days ago' from the Admiralty of the supposed Armament at Terrol, He has given Directions that a Vessel should be sent to Corunna to discover the Truth of it. Captain Pearson of the Speedwell Sloop is appointed for this Service, & fully instructed how to conduct conduct himself & his Enquiries: The Capt.^o will repair to Dover this evening where the Speedwell is in compleat Readyness for sailing.

He hopes your Majesty will approve this Attention to a piece of News which if true wou'd be very important, tho' ^{he trusts} it will prove as erroneous as Ship News generally is.
