

which the said Anountant is Allowed the Money by him paid within the time of this Anount for Wages and other Allowances to the severall Officers of his Majesty's Household and others by virtue of his Majesty's Establishment dated 13th of March 1765 and Warrants in that behalf $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. viz. The Archbishop of York by the Orders of the Sub Accountant for his Majesty's Daily Allowance and for the Port at the Gate for one Year and Quarter ended 10th October 1780 $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. More to him for the Allowance on Monday Tuesday June 23rd March 1780 $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Sir Edward Wilmot and others Physicians to his Majesty for a year and half to 10th October 1780 $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. John Deoaynes and others Apothecaries for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Sir Caesar Hawkins and others Surgeons for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Officers of the Jewell House for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Officers of the Removing Wardrobe for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Lord Chamberlains Clerks for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Donchkeepers and Wardrobe keepers for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. His Majesty's Body Guard for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Lord Vincent Balesman Master of the Buck-hounds for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Thomas Panton Esq. for the Newmarket Gamekeepers for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. George Poveell Esq. Yeoman Porter for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Thomas Jones Controller of the Anounts of the Treasurer of the Chamber for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. George Ann Cook Esq. Gentleman Usher Daily Waiter Assistant for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Richard Nonhever Historiographer in Ordinary for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. His Majesty's Musicians for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Joseph Probert Serjeant Trumpeter for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. His Majesty's Watermen for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. William Whitehead Esq. Poet Laureat for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Thomas Vincent Barber to his Majesty's Person for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Richard Dalton Surveyor and Keeper of his Majesty's Palaces for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Allan Ramsay Principal Painter to his Majesty for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Thomas Mudge Watchmaker in Ordinary for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Benjamin Villiamy Clockmaker in Ordinary for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. John Underwood Yeoman of his Majesty's Revels for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Thomas Chorpe and John King Coffet bearers in Ordinary for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Thomas Dyer Mole taker in Ordinary for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. James Thurston Clocksmith for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. The Gentlemen of the Chapel Royal in lieu of three Feet for one year ended 5th July 1780 $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. John Tucker Gardener at Somerset House for one year and half ended 10th October 1780 $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Joseph Penn and Ferdinand Shenberg successively Watchmaker in Ordinary for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. The Earl of Pembroke Master of the Heralds and Foxhounds for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. The Earl of Essex Master of the Stag hounds for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. The Duke of S. Albans Master of the Hawks for the Wages of seven Gamekeepers for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$.

More to him for their Liberties for two years ended 5th July 1780 $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Isaac H. of set Joiner to the Privy Chamber for a year and half ended 10th October 1780 $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. John Holland Embellisher of Letters to the Eastern Princes for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Anderson Sanders for rent of a Passage into Channel Row for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Honor Balliscombe Steward of Herbs in the Privy Chamber for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Thomas Ding and Thomas Chelham Clerks of the Cheque to the Messengers for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. John Amyatt Chemist in Ordinary for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Ralph Bigland Treasurer to the College of Arms for a Charge to the Kings at Arms for their attendance at Court upon great Festivals for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Robert Quarme Esq. Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod for his attendance at the House of Peers during the sittings of Parliament for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. The Bishop of London Dean of the Chapel Royal for the Preacher, attendants at the Chapel at Whitehall for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Four Gamekeepers for washing and preserving the Game within ten Miles round the Palaces of Richmond and Hampton Court for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Eight Yeomen Ushers six Yeomen Changers and two Yeomen Bedgoers for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Ten Yeomen of the Great Chamber for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Forty Messengers of the Great Chamber for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Hugh Owen Esquire Deputy Treasurer of the Chamber for the same time $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. And to this Anountant from 13th December 1779 to 10th October 1780 $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. viz. as by the Anount of this Anountant exhibited upon Oath as aforesaid examined and compared with the aforesaid Establishment and Warrants and Acquittances of the Parties or their Assigns appears And the said Anountant is Allowed the Money by him paid to the six Under Secretaries of State for their Allowances as a Reward for the Trust reposed in them and for their Attendance and application to the Business of their Offices for one year and half ended 10th October 1780 by virtue of a Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual dated 12th July 1779 $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. as by Certificates of the Principal Secretaries of State and the Receipts of the Parties appears Also the said Anountant is Allowed the Money by him paid to several Persons within the time of this Anount for the Services hereafter mentioned pursuant to Warrants in that behalf $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. viz. for Stationary Wares and Reparies for the Council Chamber by Warrants of the Lords of the Privy Council $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Stationary Wares for the Offices of the Secretaries of State $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. for Contingent Services by virtue of Warrants of the Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. And to the Messengers of his Majesty's Chamber in satisfaction of their Bills of Service performed for his Majesty signed and allowed by the Principal Secretaries of State or Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. as by the said Warrants and Receipts of the Parties or their Assigns examined and compared with the Ledger & Book of Anount exhibited upon Oath as aforesaid appears Also the said Anountant is Allowed for Ordinary Allowances $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. viz. To the Lord Chief Baron at the time of declaring this Anount $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. Lewis Lord Soudes one of the Auditors of his Majesty's Imprests for the rate and paim of himself his Deputy and Clerks in examining auditing and engrossing this Anount $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. This Anountant for Reparies used in his Office for the Wages of a Clerk to engross and keep the Books of his Receipts and Payments $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. And for an Imprest Roll $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$.

All which Payments and Allowances amount unto the Sum of $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. To which is to be Added the Money depending & insuper upon John Baron Salnary being so much imprested to him within the time of this Anount by Warrant of the Earl of Oxford Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household dated 16th March 1780 in further part of $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$ for erecting a Monument in Westminster Abbey to the Memory of the late Earl of Chatham $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$. as by the said Warrant the Receipt of the said John Baron and the Anount of this Anountant exhibited upon Oath as aforesaid appears And so the said Anountant upon the end and Determination of this Anount Which was declared before the Right Honorable Lord John Cavendish Chancellor and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer Frederick Montagu Esquire and Sir Henry Cooper Baronet Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury the 10th Day of December 1783 as also before Sir John Skynner Knight Lord Chief Baron of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer is in Surplusage the Sum of $\text{£} 117. 10. 0$.

And He is Quit.

13th December 1784
C. J. M. W. 21. 11. 1784

Uncompleted
Expenses

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

[Large area of extremely faint, illegible handwritten text, possibly bleed-through or very light ink.]

[Large area of extremely faint, illegible handwritten text, possibly bleed-through or very light ink.]

