Lord Wellesley has the honor to submit to Your Royal Highness a series of papers, according to the list contained in this Box, for the purpose of acquainting Your Royal Highness with the general tenor of the Policy observed with the United States of America, under His Majesty's commands, during the last Year. Lord Wellesley proposes, in obedience to

to Your Royal Highness's commands, which he had the honor of receiving this day, to submit to Your Royal Highness the last letter received from Mr Penkney, with the draft of an answer for Your Royal Highness's gracious approbation.
