Order Room. Feb. 11. 1811

Sir

A General Sir Harry Burrard has directed me to propose that Orders for the Brigade, respecting Duties at Causton House, may be sent, before 4 o'clock in the afternoon, to the Field Officer in waiting at the Order Room Whitehall. But after that hour, they had better be directed to him at Portman Street Barracks - He will then be enabled to issue his Orders accordingly, without any Delay.

I have the Honor to be,
Sir,

Major Genl. Turner } Your most obed<sup>t</sup>. Serv<sup>t</sup>.
Causton House }
