17556-7

The Commission to be superscribed at the beginning George III.

To be made out as all Commissions executed by Regents or Custodes Regni, which I have been able to see, are made out - in the Name of the King.

To write in the usual manner the Commencement, Adjournments & Prorogations of this Parliament to the Termination of the last Prorogation on the 1st November

To write the Letters patent of the 15th January 1801

To write the Appointment under the

This is unnecessary as Part. must not be the Act and the Prince Signs as Regent

Act

To write that it appears expedient to authorize the Persons in these Letters patent named to open & declare certain further Comps of holding the Parliament

From these Letters Patent to authorize

This is concerning not only concern

This leaves to their such as

1870

This is an authority to not under this Comen.

Such Persons be virtue of according to the Sense of the Letters Patent to declare such further Clauses as have by the Advice of the Council been given them in Charge

This leaves them to their Effort such as it is

Then a Clause to declare that the Letters shall not invalidate the former Letters Patent or in any way affect them

If that Clause is not inserted then a general Clause to enable the Commissioners herein named to continue the Parliament and to proceed upon all Affairs depending to depend therein, with the general words in all such Clauses.

The former those seems to me the safest — as most closely connected with the Regent's Authority

The Commission to be tested By the Regent Hornsby in the Name of on the behalf of the King Signed with the Regent's own Hand
