

Feb. 13. 1811.

Mr. Mash

(Thos. B.) to Col. J.
McMahon

Lord Chamberlain's Office

17570

Mr. Mash presents his Compliments to Colonel McMahon, having communicated to the Board of Green Cloth the message he had the honor to receive yesterday, respecting the orders necessary to be given by the Lord Steward's Department, with regard to the regulation of the liveries of the Nobility, attending His Royal Highness The Prince Regent's Levee, on Tuesday next. it has been suggested, that the Lord Steward cannot receive any directions of the kind through this office, and it is therefore requested Colonel McMahon will be so obliging to address a letter to his Lordship upon the subject

Lord Chamberlain's Office

13th February 1811

