Lord Wellesley requests Your Royal Highness's attention to the Secret correspondence contained in this Box. It is sent to Your Royal Highness in the manner, which Your Royal Highness has been pleased to approve.

In returning these papers, at Your Royal Highness's leisure, it would perhaps appear to Your Royal Highness to be a necessary precaution to to affix a seal to the Box, or to return the Box to Lord Wellesley, at some time, when he may have the honor of being admitted to Your Royal Highness's presence.
