Mr Ryder

to Col. J. Macmahon

17586

Great George Street
Feb 9. 16 - 1811

Mr Ryder presents his Compliments to Col. Macmahon and will have the Honor of obeying His Royal Highness's Commands by attending at the hour mentioned at Carlton House tomorrow.

Mr Ryder will be much obliged to Col. Macmahon to inform him whether it is His Royal Highness's Pleasure that His Royal Highness's Servants should attend on similar occasions in full dress.
Mr Ryder is sensible that he ought to have made this enquiry before, and that he took the liberty of waiting upon His Royal Highness in a frock the other evening: but the interval then between the time of his receiving His Royal Highness's Summons, and the hour fixed ~~for~~ ~~apart~~ to admit of his changing his dress.
