Genl. Mary Wellesley B.H.R.A.

17597

Foreign Office Feby 19th
1811

It is with the deepest concern that Lord Wellesley has the honor of discharging the painful duty of acquainting Your Royal Highness, that the Duke of Albuquerque, who had been violently afflicted for some days with a delirious fever, died last night.

Lord Wellesley is anxious to state to Your Royal Highness all the circumstances, which have come to his knowledge, respecting this melancholy event, & also to receive Your Royal Highness's commands with regard to the place & manner of the Duke of Albuquerque's inter-internment.
