Dear Sir

The Mayor of Bristol & a deputation from the Corporation are come up to present an address to the Prince - I understand he will receive it at his levee; & as a part of my duty as their High Steward is to give them a dinner afterwards, you would much oblige me by letting me know, if you you can, whether there is any probability of the lease being put off, as I was told yesterday it was to be for another week.

Believe me ever

Dear Sir

Your most faithful

servant
